Activities Volunteer Thatcham

Are you passionate about supporting young people and making a positive impact in the community? An organisation that runs youth activities in Thatcham is looking for volunteers to help with activities.

They recognise that not everyone can commit to a weekly volunteer role, so they offer opportunities for ad hoc volunteering. Whether you're available to help at their monthly Roller Discos, free school holiday activities, or contribute your skills to administrative tasks, event management, or fundraising, there's a place for you! (Ref: NY2570)

Activity Volunteer – Activity Games Newbury

A charity which supports autistic and other neurodivergent individuals and their families is looking for volunteers to help at its monthly active games session in Newbury. The session gives young people aged 5 to 18 and with additional needs an opportunity to be physically active. There are no serious sporting skills required and often no winners or losers.

Volunteers help those attending to socialise, make friends and feel empowered. You'll support with providing a friendly and safe environment, join in with games and activities and help set up/pack away. You will also occasionally engage with parents and carers. The session is on Thursdays during term-time, with volunteers required 4:30 to 6:00pm. The role would suit those with experience of supporting those with disabilities. (Ref: NY2714)

Activity Volunteer – Teen Club Newbury

A charity which provides support for autistic and other neurodivergent individuals and their families is looking for volunteers to help at its monthly Family Drop-In session in Newbury. The sessions give children and young people an opportunity to socialise in a relaxed and supportive environment with their parents/carers. The Drop-In is designed to be safe and welcoming, with an organised craft activity each month.

As a volunteer, you'll help the children and young people to socialise, joining in with games and activities, and support parents/carers who may feel overwhelmed and just need someone to listen. The club runs on the 2nd Tuesday of the month, with volunteers required between 4:45 and 6:15pm. The role would suit those with experience of supporting those with disabilities. (Ref: NY2713)

Activity Volunteers West Berkshire

Would you like to volunteer as a friend/companion to children and young people with physical or sensory disabilities, as they take part in different activities?

A local disability charity runs activities such as youth clubs, sports and trips out across the West Berkshire area, and volunteers are needed to help with these. The charity's aim is to ensure that children and young people with disabilities have the same opportunities as everyone else. Volunteers do not provide 'care', but rather become friends/companions. Ideal for fun and lively volunteers who enjoy games, sports and being with young people.

Timings are 4.45-6.30pm every Tuesday in Newbury and 5.15-7.15pm every other Friday in Thatcham. (Ref: NY1835)

Activity Volunteers Newbury

Volunteers aged 14+ are needed to provide support to children with additional needs while they access play activities. In this role, you will be supporting play, helping the children take part in activities such as imaginative play, sensory play, soft play, outdoor play, arts and crafts, games, cooking and outdoor play.

Sessions can be a couple of hours after school, Saturdays from 10am-2pm or a 6 hour day or longer in school holidays. Induction and training are provided, and volunteers can use hours towards their Duke of Edinburgh Award. (Ref: NY2312)

Activity Volunteer – Teen Club Newbury

A charity which provides support for autistic and other neurodivergent individuals and their families is looking for volunteers to help at its monthly Teen Club in Newbury. The club gives young people aged 12-18 and with additional needs an opportunity to socialise in a relaxed and supportive environment. Volunteers help those attending to feel safe, make friends and feel empowered. The role involves joining in with games and activities, helping plan or lead small activities and helping set up/pack away.

The club runs one Tuesday a month, with volunteers required between 4:30-6:30pm. The role would suit those with experience of supporting those with disabilities. (Ref: NY2712)

Adult Helpers Compton

Could you help girls grow in confidence, have adventures and learn new skills? Volunteer Adult Helpers are needed to support with Girl Guiding activities in the Compton area. You don't need any experience in Guiding – just enthusiasm and a desire to have fun!

Whether you can offer help for an evening every two weeks or would like to support every week, any level of help is welcome. There will be the opportunity to take an active role in planning and delivering activities, as well as working towards a leadership qualification. Volunteers are required on Monday evenings. (Ref: NY2250)

Advisor Tadley

An organisation based in Tadley provides free, confidential and independent advice to help people overcome their problems, and inform them of their rights and responsibilities. For their clients, many of whom are vulnerable, elderly, disabled or have long-term health conditions, the help can be life changing.

The organisation has different client facing roles, which all form part of their development pathway. Volunteers start with the reception role, and progress moving towards the advisor role. Full training is provided, and volunteers commit to two half days per week. The role would suit friendly, non-judgemental and approachable volunteers with good listening skills. (Ref: NY2354)

Advocacy Coach Newbury

An advocacy charity which supports disadvantaged and marginalised people is seeking volunteer advocacy coaches in West Berkshire. The role involves supporting clients to develop the confidence to self-advocate for a one-off event or as part of their personal progression. You will help with co-delivering self-advocacy workshops, support peer advocacy groups and provide 1:1 advocacy coaching to clients. By volunteering, you'll help ensure clients have greater choice and control over their lives.

Time commitment is 3-6 hours a week (within the hours of Monday to Friday, 9-5pm). The role would suit someone with a positive attitude towards vulnerable clients who is confident in communicating information. Experience of delivering training or workshops is desirable. The role will take place in a variety of settings locally. (Ref: NY2591)

After School Club Support Assistant Thatcham

A local charity that provides play and friendship for children with disabilities and their families is seeking volunteers to help at their after school club.

The role involves helping engage the children in fun-filled play opportunities, supporting before, during and after the session. Volunteers will help children within groups or one-to-one. Other duties include cleaning and tidying and setting areas up.

This opportunity is available on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays during term-time, 15:30 to 17:30. This role would suit reliable, patient and non-judgemental volunteers who are willing to learn skills. You can volunteer for this role from age 14. (Ref: NY2490)

Almshouse Directors Newbury

A Newbury charity owns and manages 16 modern flats that are let to families who cannot afford to buy or rent on the open market. The charity is seeking volunteer directors who will enjoy using housing, finance or charitable experience to improve the life chances of low-income households locally.

You could use your professional experience to add breadth and depth to the Residents Committee, the primary interface between the Board and the residents or to the Finance Committee, where a Treasurer is needed to help the charity make the most of its money. Board meetings take place every six weeks in the evenings, and board committees meet as necessary. Directors also give time between meetings. (Ref: NY2703)

Animal Team Volunteer Hampstead Norreys

A local visitor attraction is home to various species of fish, primates, birds, reptiles, amphibians and invertebrates. Volunteers with a caring attitude are being recruited to join the organisation's animal team.

Duties include various aspects of animal husbandry, food preparation, enclosure maintenance and lots of physical work. Volunteers must be happy with getting dirty and handling creepy crawlies! A background in animal care would be an advantage, although not essential as training will be given. Time commitment is one set day per week. (Ref: NY24)

Appeal Volunteers
West Berkshire

Volunteers are being recruited to coordinate the Poppy Appeal locally during the fundraising period in the autumn. Responsibilities could involve contacting local organisations and arranging delivery of poppies, recruiting and organising collectors, arranging fundraising events and collections, and delivering poppies and tins.

Volunteers will receive training and support. (Ref: NY1018)

Art Hub and Ancillary Café Volunteer
Newbury

A local charity which advances education and appreciation of the arts is looking for volunteers to help in its small café in Newbury. This will involve chatting to patrons, serving drinks (after training on the barista machine) and cake, clearing tables, washing up and helping ensure the smooth running of the café. You would take payments for café sales and potentially art sales. There are also opportunities to help with exhibitions and events.

The café is currently open Thursday through to Sunday and they normally work on a four-hour shift (9:30-13:30 and 12:30-16:30). The role would suit good communicators with a sense of humour who enjoy working in a team. (Ref: NY2476)

Assistant for conversation classes/creche assistant for toddlers
Newbury

Come and join the chat with refugee parents (and their pre-school children) who are new to Newbury and help them understand life in the UK. The parents have a range of English from complete beginners to improvers. The classes are conversation only (there is no syllabus or exams). A lesson book is available but you can be creative and pick up on a learner's interests on the day. Volunteers are also needed to run the creche at the sessions.

Sessions are one and half hours long on Monday mornings and held in Newbury. The role would suit friendly and patient volunteers with an interest in other cultures and backgrounds. (Ref: NY2575)

Assistant Section Leader
- Beavers
Hungerford

A Beaver group in Hungerford gives children aged 6-8 the opportunity to enjoy fun and adventure while developing skills for life. The group is looking to recruit an Assistant Section Leader to help run the sessions, assist with preparing and delivering activities, and planning an exciting programme for the term. Sessions contain a mixture of games and themed activities, indoors and out. There is also the opportunity to be part of camps and other off-site events.

Time commitment is Tuesdays, 6:00-7:15pm (term time only) with occasional special events at weekends and during school holidays. Volunteers need to be ready to engage and encourage young people. You don't need to be an expert in everything, just ready to learn alongside them. (Ref: NY2441)

Assistant Section Leader
- Cubs
Hungerford

A Cub group in Hungerford gives children aged 8-10.5 the opportunity to enjoy fun and adventure while developing skills for life. The group is looking to recruit an Assistant Section Leader to help run the sessions, assist with preparing and delivering activities, and planning an exciting programme for the term. Sessions contain a mixture of games and themed activities, indoors and out. There is also the opportunity to be part of camps and other off-site events.

Time commitment is Thursdays, 6:30-8:00pm (term time only) with occasional special events at weekends and during school holidays. Volunteers need to be ready to engage and encourage young people. You don't need to be an expert in everything, just ready to learn alongside them. (Ref: NY2595)

Association Visitor
West Berkshire

Make a real difference to the lives of people living with Motor Neurone Disease by volunteering as a visitor for the local branch of an MND charity. In this role, you will offer emotional support to people living with MND and their families, provide information and help people access services/support.

Time commitment is flexible, with a minimum commitment of 2-4 hours a week. The role would suit volunteers who can work as part of a team, liaise with health and social care professionals and develop supportive relationships. (Ref: NY2145)

At Home Library Service
West Berkshire

Would you like to help make the world of reading accessible to people who are unable to access their local library due to disability or illness?

A local service is looking for a volunteer to select books from the library in Newbury on a Wednesday on a three weekly basis. You would then make home visits to deliver the books to local residents. These visits can be made at a time suitable for the volunteer and the borrower. You will need access to your own car (a mileage allowance will be paid).

Good people skills and empathy are essential, and a love of books would be an advantage. (Ref: NY61)

Awareness & Activities Volunteers
West Berkshire

A national charity dedicated to supporting people with Crohn's and Colitis is seeking volunteers to join its local team.

Volunteers will help with events to raise awareness of the conditions. The role would suit proactive volunteers who are willing to travel to events. Time commitment is approximately three hours per week, usually on weekday evenings and weekends, however the role is really flexible. (Ref: NY1668)

B

Backroom Sorters
Newbury

A Newbury charity shop dedicated to fighting poverty and inequality is seeking backroom sorters.

Behind the scenes, a lot goes on to help the shop sell over one thousand pounds worth of goodies every week. In this role, you'll help sort donations, research and price goods, stock the shop floor and display items for sale.

The role would suit reliable volunteers who enjoy meeting people and perhaps have a love of fashion or homewares. (Ref: NY2288)

Beaver, Cub and Scout Leaders
Newbury

A Newbury Scout group is looking for volunteers to join its dedicated team of leaders running Beaver, Cub or Scout activities. Activities are varied, so don't feel you need to be an expert at tying knots or camping! All the group asks for is enthusiasm, enjoyment and a willingness to get involved. No previous experience is required.

Mostly, you will learn by doing and by watching others. There is a small amount of statutory training which can be completed online. Ideally, you would commit to the weekly meetings for the group that you are interested in (Beavers is on Wednesday evening, Cubs on Thursday evening and Scouts on Wednesday evening), but there can be some flexibility. The role would suit enthusiastic volunteers who enjoy being part of a team. (Ref: NY2544)

Beaver Leader
Newbury

A Beaver Scout Colony which meets in Newbury on Tuesday evenings (6:15-7:30pm) during term time is looking for volunteers to help with running the group. The role involves assisting with managing and leading the group, and planning the delivery of the programme. You will help ensure that safe, exciting and stimulating activities are provided for the 6-8 year olds attending. You'll also actively support and promote the achievement of badges, and ensure every young person in the group has the opportunity to attend at least one nights away experience each year.

The role would suit someone who enjoys being part of a team as well as having a laugh. Training will be provided. As well as the weekly sessions, there are two or three leaders meetings a year and a group outing or camp once a year. (Ref: NY2432)

Befriender
West Berkshire

Could you be a friend to an older person in West Berkshire? Volunteer to visit someone who is lonely or can't get out much.

As a befriender, you will visit the person regularly in their home, building up a long-term relationship with them. During a visit you will spend quality time talking and listening – you may play cards or games, do craft activities or take a short walk if the person is mobile.

Visits are usually 1-2 hours a week in the daytime. The role would suit kind, caring and friendly volunteers. You will be given training and ongoing support. Volunteers are required across the area, but there is currently a particular need in Tilehurst. It is also possible for volunteers to do telephone befriending. (Ref: NY78)

Befriender 'In Home'
Tadley

A charity supports people with learning disabilities and autism, who may also have sight loss, to realise their goals each and every day.

As an 'In Home' befriender, you will play an important role by providing companionship to someone the charity supports, visiting them in the home in Tadley and doing activities they enjoy. These might include chatting over a cup of tea, reading books and playing board games.

Opportunities are available supporting both children/young people and adults. Timings are flexible according to your availability, however a regular commitment would be appreciated, even if only once a fortnight. The role would suit friendly volunteers who love to chat. (Ref: NY2382)

Befriender 'Out and About'
Tadley

A charity supports people with learning disabilities and autism, who may also have sight loss, to realise their goals each and every day.

As an 'Out and About' befriender, you will play an important role in the lives of the people the charity supports, by being a reliable companion to attend activities they enjoy taking part in. This might include going for a walk, attending a concert, going to the cinema or going out for a coffee or meal.

Opportunities are available supporting both children/young people and adults. Timings are flexible according to your availability, however a regular commitment would be appreciated, even if only once a fortnight. The role would suit friendly volunteers who love to chat. (Ref: NY2383)

Befrienders
West Berkshire

A befriending service in West Berkshire helps make a difference to those with life-limiting conditions.

As a befriender, you'll provide companionship to people during a difficult time in their lives and enable them to do the things that matter to them. This could include offering companionship, sharing activities and helping with small practical tasks. Time commitment is at least one hour a week. Individuals need to have a warm and caring approach. Full training, support and mentoring are provided. (Ref: NY866)

Bicycle Counter
West Berkshire

A local organisation aims to get more people cycling as a form of transport. Three times a year, in February, June and October, they carry out a cycle count on behalf of the council.

A counter commits to one, but preferably two hours per count site. You can count more than one site if you wish to, as counts can be performed on a Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday. You will be provided with detailed instructions and a map of the site you are counting. In February and October the counting time is between 7:30 and 9:30am. In June it is between 7:30 and 9:00am. The count involves marking down each cyclist that passes through a specified area, and details such as the direction they are going and if they are wearing a helmet.

There are 17 count sites, with locations in Newbury, Thatcham, Theale, Hungerford, Calcot, Tilehurst and Purley. (Ref: NY2470)

Boat Crew
Newbury

If you would like to spend some time on the local canal, then this is the opportunity for you! Volunteers who love being outdoors and meeting people are needed to crew boat trips for the public that run from the Newbury Wharf on Thursdays and at weekends during the season, as well as themed trips and private charters at other times.

All crew receive training, and help make trips as enjoyable and safe as possible. There are opportunities to undertake roles such as helming the boat, skippering trips and helping with engineering and maintenance. Volunteers with no, little or a lot of experience of the canal and boats are welcome. (Ref: NY1287)

Branch Chair Calcot

The local branch of an MND charity is looking for a Branch Chair, to be responsible for the different activities being undertaken by branch volunteers, and to give a sense of continuity to their work. This role involves planning, preparing and facilitating committee meetings; ensuring appropriate decisions are made; supporting branch volunteers in planning and coordinating activities; ensuring volunteers are aware of procedures; helping with volunteer recruitment and induction and acting as an ambassador for the charity.

Meetings are held on a Thursday evening every other month in Calcot. Volunteering will involve approximately 2-3 hours a week. The role would suit someone with leadership, facilitation and communication skills who has experience of running meetings. (Ref: NY2499)

Brownie, Guide and Rainbow Volunteers Newbury

Be an inspiring role model to girls and young women in Newbury – and have fun in the process. Both leaders and helpers are needed. As unit leader, you'll run the unit, lead a team of volunteers, and plan and deliver a programme of awesome activities.

If you're enthusiastic about giving girls opportunities for fun, friendship, challenge and adventure then you'll make a perfect unit helper. You'll be key in providing the extra help needed to make unit meetings and events happen. Plus, you'll get to know the girls and other volunteers, and be part of the Girlguiding community. (Ref: NY348)

Building Guide Greenham

Do you have an interest in local history? A visitor attraction in Newbury focusing on Greenham's history is seeking volunteer guides.

The role will involve providing a friendly welcome to visitors, giving guided tours/short talks to help them learn more about the building and its historical collections, selling guidebooks, answering questions and ensuring procedures are followed.

The building is open every weekend and Wednesday to Friday through the week with occasional weekend events. There is no minimum commitment, and the organisation will be as flexible as possible in the context of their opening hours. (Ref: NY1943)

C

Café and Gift Shop Volunteer Newbury

A local museum is recruiting volunteers to help in its café and gift shop, providing a warm welcome to visitors.

The role involves taking orders, operating a till, serving customers, learning how to make food and drinks when required and helping with merchandise by cleaning or restocking.

Volunteers will commit to a regular time, with sessions available 10-1pm or 1-4pm Saturday or Sunday.

The role would suit volunteers who enjoy communicating with people of all ages and can demonstrate good customer service. You need to remain calm at busy times but cope when things are quieter. (Ref: NY2134)

Café Assistant Greenham

A visitor attraction in Newbury focusing on Greenham's history is seeking volunteers to help in its café.

The role will involve greeting customers and taking orders, preparing simple food and serving. Volunteers will also help keep the café and kitchens clean, learn to operate a till and have the opportunity to contribute ideas for the café's development.

The building is open Wednesday to Friday through the week and every weekend with occasional evening events. Time commitment is flexible to suit you. Experience of catering would be an asset, but training can be provided. (Ref: NY1944)

Camera Club Volunteers
Newbury

A local project which runs wellbeing activities for, and aims to combat loneliness of older adults, runs a camera club on Monday mornings from 9:30 to 12:00. Volunteers who are passionate camera enthusiasts are being recruited to attend the weekly sessions in Newbury and help establish a regular group presence.

As a volunteer, you will collaborate with the club members to foster a supportive and creative community, with the club receiving monthly visits by a professional photographer. The role would suit those with a willingness to share their knowledge with fellow enthusiasts, and a warm and friendly personality. The club is keen to recruit some male volunteers – the project is aiming to attract men to the group who they have found harder to engage with. (Ref: NY2497)

Carpentry Workshop Supervisor
Newbury

A Newbury based organisation that works with older people is looking for volunteer Carpentry Workshop Supervisors.

The role will involve joining a team of other volunteers running and developing the workshop sessions. You will help supervise small groups of mainly older men with different abilities focusing on woodworking projects (recently the groups have been building barn owl boxes).

Time commitment is two hours from 10am until midday once or twice a week on weekdays (there is flexibility on which days). The role would suit a competent wood worker with experience, who enjoys being part of a team and has an empathy for older people. (Ref: NY2342)

Cat Foster Carer
West Berkshire

The local branch of an animal charity is looking for cat-loving volunteers to become volunteer foster carers. Could you help play a vital role in improving the wellbeing of the cats in their care whilst they wait to be rehomed?

As a fosterer, you would be providing cats with the safety of your home whilst tending to their welfare needs such as feeding, grooming, playing and transporting them to veterinary appointments when required.

Volunteers will need some experience caring for cats; fostering experience is beneficial but not essential as training is provided. For their wellbeing, cats need to be kept in a separate room. (Ref: NY2434)

Centre Volunteer
Newbury

A charity maintains a documentary and photographic record of textiles located throughout the UK. At its centre in Newbury, they have a textile collection, library and mural, and host exhibitions and workshops throughout the year relating to all aspects of needlework.

The centre is looking for a reliable and enthusiastic volunteer to join its small friendly team on Thursdays (am and pm). The role will involve helping with some administration tasks, welcoming visitors, helping prepare items for sale including sorting and measuring fabrics and serving customers in the café. (Ref: NY2339)

Chapel Guide
Burghclere

Did you know the only National Trust property dedicated to the First World War is located just a few miles out of Newbury? If you have a welcoming manner and enjoy talking to people, and can give two or more hours each week, you could become a volunteer guide at the property.

As a guide, you will contribute to giving visitors a unique experience, greeting them on arrival and helping answer their questions. That said, no prior knowledge of the property and its history is required – you can learn as you go along and will be supported by staff. Many visitors share their own family stories of the war, and this is an opportunity to share in those stories. The property is open Thursday to Sunday, between March and November each year. From June to August, they are also open on a Wednesday. Time commitment is a morning or afternoon a fortnight. (Ref: NY1737)

Charity Mascot Volunteer
West Berkshire

A charity that supports children and young people who are facing, or have experienced, the death of someone close, is seeking volunteers to wear its mascot costumes at various community events.

The loveable doggie mascot costumes entertain children (and adults!) at events taking place throughout the year such as summer fetes and family fun days. The role involves waving to children, shaking hands and interacting with children and young people, posing for photos, handing out stickers and promotional materials and taking part in bucket collections.

Events are usually on Saturdays and Sundays, and there is no expectation for you to be available for all events. The role would suit enthusiastic and friendly volunteers – your height must be between 5ft and 5ft 8. (Ref: NY2304)

Charity Secretary
West Berkshire

A local charity which provides support for those in our community with a short-term food need is seeking a secretary to support their board of trustees. This role involves delivering the administrative needs of meetings by producing agendas and minutes, helping ensure that follow-up actions are carried out, helping ensure the charity complies with legal requirements and maintaining proper administrative records.

Time commitment is around 8-10 hours a month, predominantly volunteering from home except for trustee meetings every other month (usually held on a weekday evening). The role would suit someone with experience or ability in administrative processes and writing clearly, and an ability to provide clear advice on procedural and relevant legislative matters, with help as needed from relevant sources. (Ref: NY2711)

Charity Shop Team Members
Newbury

Help raise funds for a leading health charity by volunteering for a busy charity shop based in the centre of town. This is an opportunity to gain retail experience and meet new people.

Volunteers should enjoy working with the public, and as part of a team, and be happy to learn how to use the till. You will be provided with full training in areas such as till work, sorting, pricing and rotation of stock. (Ref: NY16)

Charity Shop Volunteer
Newbury

The Newbury branch of one of the leading charity shop outlets in the country would welcome new volunteers to help them in their busy shop that is open Monday to Saturday.

Volunteers with common sense and the ability to work as a team are needed to help with a variety of tasks including pricing, sorting and serving. They are particularly looking for till cashiers and those who are willing to cash-up at the end of the day.

This is an ideal opportunity to contribute to the fundraising efforts of an international charity, whilst meeting others and learning new skills. (Ref: NY22)

Charity Shop Volunteer
Newbury

Volunteers are required to help in a Newbury charity shop. An ideal way to gain experience in retail, you can help raise funds for a leading animal charity.

Volunteers will be supported with training to develop their skills, and whatever help you can give would be welcomed; however a couple of hours or one half day a week would be ideal. Tasks include processing new stock, till work and displaying goods. (Ref: NY1704)

Charity Shop Volunteer
Thatcham

Volunteers are required to assist in the day to day running of an animal charity shop in Thatcham.

The role would suit volunteers with experience of using a till and taking card payments – this experience is not essential though as training can be provided.

Volunteers commit to either one morning or one afternoon a week. If you love animals, love talking to customers and love seeing customers purchase a great bargain, the shop would be interested in hearing from you. (Ref: NY2215)

Charity Shop Volunteer
Newbury

Volunteers are required to assist in the day to day running of an animal charity shop in Newbury.

The role would suit volunteers with experience of using a till and taking card payments – this experience is not essential though as training can be provided.

Volunteers commit to either one morning or one afternoon a week. If you love animals, love talking to customers and love seeing customers purchase a great bargain, the shop would be interested in hearing from you. (Ref: NY2281)

Charity Shop Worker
Newbury

A major national help charity has a shop based in the centre of the town, and offers volunteers a chance to gain work experience, training and qualifications. Even if you're not setting out to start a career, you can meet new people by joining their team.

Tasks include till work, sorting and pricing donated goods, stock presentation and creating eye-catching window displays. Volunteers will be provided with training. (Ref: NY404)

Children & Young Persons' Activities
Assistant
West Berkshire

A local charity that supports people who are blind or visually impaired runs a programme of activities for children and young people and their families. These include crafting, cooking, visits to adventure parks or sporting activities. Please note that many of the activities for young people take place during the school holidays.

The role would suit friendly and patient volunteers who enjoy being part of a team, and training will be given. (Ref: NY2223)

Children's Play and Support Volunteer
Newbury

A local charity is recruiting volunteers to help children with learning disabilities explore their world; this could be through play or developing and practising new life skills. The charity has a purpose-built centre with sensory room, soft play, art and music room, large hall, kitchen and playground.

Activities take place at an after-school club every weekday afternoon, Friday afternoons, Saturdays and a dance club on Thursday after school.

They are flexible on volunteers focusing on group or individual play with a varied age range or progressing to supporting children with complex medical needs (full training is given). The role would suit enthusiastic, fun, reliable and creative volunteers committed to helping children with learning, physical and complex medical needs. (Ref: NY2581)

Children's Rugby Coach
Thatcham

A local rugby club is looking for more volunteers to coach its junior sections. The club has funding available to support coaching qualifications for suitable candidates.

Volunteering will take generally place on Sunday mornings, and includes training, matches and tournaments with some travel and administration required.

The season runs from September through to April. The ideal volunteer will be enthusiastic about working with young people and enjoy delivering fun and engaging coaching sessions. (Ref: NY1881)

Church Ambassador
West Berkshire

A Christian charity collects unwanted tools, refurbishes them and then sorts them into trade kits to send across the world for livelihood creation.

Volunteer Church Ambassadors are being recruited by the charity. In this role, you'll inform your local church of the charity's mission and plans. Church Ambassadors can organise local tool collections, distribute the charity's newsletter and prayer diary, ask the church to consider the charity for harvest and special offerings and arrange prayer events and coffee mornings.

The role would suit friendly and engaging volunteers who can encourage people to support the charity's cause. (Ref: NY2319)

Cleaners

West Berkshire

A local charity provides holidays on purpose-built canal boats for disabled, disadvantaged or elderly people and their carers. Volunteers are needed to help carry out light cleaning of the boats between holiday hires. It is a good social occasion, with a break for coffee and lardy cake!

Cleaning takes place on Friday and Saturday mornings in Great Bedwyn, and there is an online rostering system to sign up as and when you are available – you don't need to commit to every week. No experience is needed as on the job training will be given. (Ref: NY1064)

Client Gardener Support Volunteer

Beech Hill

A garden in the Beech Hill area of West Berkshire is used to bring about positive changes to the lives of people with a range of disabilities and health conditions.

In this role, you will develop social interaction with individuals using the garden, encouraging and supporting them with their work (sowing seeds, watering, planting out, weeding, digging, hoeing, mowing, pruning). You will demonstrate tasks and guide individuals to a greater or lesser extent depending on their needs.

The role would suit volunteers with patience and a commitment to being supportive and companionable. Time commitment is one day a week (on a weekday, 9.45am – 3.15pm). (Ref: NY2267)

Climate and Nature Supporter

West Berkshire

A West Berkshire organisation helps local eco groups share knowledge, ideas and best practice. They have recently developed a Climate and Nature stall, to signpost people to information about low impact, affordable and healthy food, travel, home energy and more. If this is something you have any interest or experience in, they would love to hear from you. The organisation also continues to develop ways to share information about climate- and nature-friendly choices – is this something you could help with?

Time commitment is very flexible. The role would suit those with an interest in the environment, and confidence in talking to people at events. (Ref: NY2632)

Club Members

Newbury

The world's largest service club organisation has a branch in Newbury and would welcome new members who would like to volunteer their time to help humanitarian causes in their local and global communities.

Whilst service is the club's main function, for example through putting on fundraising events, it also offers networking, social activities and monthly meetings.

Members from all backgrounds and with different skills and interests are welcome – the club believes everyone has a contribution to make! (Ref: NY817)

Club Volunteer

Newbury

A Newbury based project aims to provide a stimulating environment for people living with the earlier stages of dementia or mild cognitive impairment. Guests benefit from discussion, activities and connections, the opportunity to make new friends and a hot midday meal. As a volunteer, you will use your interpersonal skills to support those attending. Tasks include welcoming guests, offering tea and coffee, serving and clearing away the meal, setting up and packing away and supporting guests during activities.

The sessions run on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10:00 to 15:00. They would love for you to volunteer for a whole day, but understand some people might prefer a shorter volunteering session. The role would suit friendly and empathetic volunteers with good communication and listening skills, who can offer a regular time commitment. (Ref: NY2679)

Club Volunteer

Newbury

A social club for adults with learning disabilities meets in Newbury on a Wednesday evening. The club is looking for volunteers to help, ideally between 6:30pm and 8.45pm. The role involves helping with set up and putting away, and helping staff to deliver activities and engage with the members to ensure they have a safe and enjoyable time.

The club understands that people have busy lives and is happy if someone is only able to help once or twice a month. If you have a particular interest in crafts or music that would be especially welcome, but most important is a general enthusiasm to help others. (Ref: NY2724)

Club Volunteers/Members
Newbury

The local branch of a worldwide organisation that believes that friendship is the basis on which lasting change can be made is seeking new members. You will help develop the way in which support is provided to the local community, using your existing skills whilst developing new ones.

The local group supports local community and fundraising events, provides youth enrichment activities, organises days out for children with disabilities and the elderly and takes part in practical activities to preserve our local environment. The group also meets regularly to enjoy social activities.

Time commitment is flexible; there are no firm time commitments although it is important to attend the regular monthly meetings. (Ref: NY2380)

Code Club Volunteer
Newbury

Code Club is a national initiative to help introduce children to computer programming. A club is run by the library service in Newbury and they are looking for a volunteer who can share their knowledge of coding and computing with young people at these free sessions.

You will help with coding with Scratch, providing support and guidance to the 9-11 year olds attending. The role involves helping them work through the weekly projects and find solutions to coding problems.

The role would suit someone who is competent in IT and enthusiastic about coding, and has good interpersonal skills. Sessions take place on a Thursday, 4-5pm. There is also an opportunity to help with further activities and events outside these hours occasionally. (Ref: NY2606)

Community Hub Wellbeing Volunteer
Thatcham

A mental health charity is looking for volunteers to provide support at sessions for young people aged 11-15 who might be struggling with their mental health. They are interested in hearing from people with experience of this age group and an understanding of safeguarding and welfare of young people.

They are looking for help at morning sessions (running on Mondays and Fridays, 8:30-10:30) and Tuesday afternoons (3:30-5:00) in Thatcham. Ideal for flexible volunteers interested in helping young people thrive. (Ref: NY2725)

Conflict Coach –
Families and Young People
West Berkshire

A charity provides a volunteer delivered Conflict Resolution Service. As a Volunteer Conflict Coach, you will use your skills to support families and young people involved in conflict. You don't need to be an expert as you will be provided with training in proven coaching techniques. In this role, you'll provide up to three conflict support sessions per case, empowering those you are supporting. The role will also involve collaborating with others to ensure everyone feels heard, signposting to other supports and helping families and young people see conflict differently.

Volunteers commit to at least one year of volunteering, handling a minimum of ten cases (around three half-days or evenings per month). Meetings are a mix of online and face-to-face sessions in safe, neutral venues. The role would suit those with good communication and listening skills, resilience and an understanding of vulnerable groups. (Ref: NY2704)

Cook
Newbury

A local charity is looking for a volunteer cook for alternate Wednesdays (most of the day but finishing for 4pm) to come into their Newbury-based kitchen and prepare meals for their clients experiencing homelessness or who are vulnerably housed.

The role will involve cooking a soup, hot meal and sometimes a pudding and may include a bit of baking. Each week is different; they work with donated food and like to use as much of that as possible. The role would suit someone who is happy to volunteer in the kitchen alone or alongside another person. The volunteer should be confident with home cooking and making substantial nutritious meals such as casseroles, rice dishes, mild curries, vegetable soups, crumbles and sponges. Food Hygiene Level 2 training will be provided. (Ref: NY2653)

Collections Manager, Supermarkets
West Berkshire

A local charity provides essential support for those with a short-term food need. This volunteer role involves building relationships with supermarkets to raise awareness of the charity's work and encourage them to support it.

A number of relationships already exist, so a key element of the role is to maintain these links, as well as build new ones. Activities will include planning a calendar of campaigns, producing e-mails and presentations for supermarkets, visiting stores, ensuring stores are given promotional material, ensuring social media covers supermarket involvement and acting as a point of contact.

The role would suit an organised team player with strong communication skills. (Ref: NY2604)

Collection Box Co-Ordinator
West Berkshire

A charity which provides assistance dogs to people with visual impairment is seeking a collection box co-ordinator.

The role involves placing boxes locally and then collecting the money raised. You will develop relationships with local shops, businesses and other organisations, encouraging them to host one of the boxes. There is also an opportunity to be involved in street collections and promoting the charity's work at local events. (Ref: NY647)

Committee Member
Donnington

A Newbury pre-school is seeking new volunteers to join its committee. The committee holds regular meetings every 6-8 weeks (generally on an evening during the week) in which they discuss fundraising, accounts, staffing salaries when needed and any requests from the manager such as new equipment, staffing or admin support.

Experience in admin, HR, finance, charities or events would be great but not essential. The pre-school are currently looking for a new treasurer but general members of the committee are welcome. Time commitment is 1-5 hours a week, depending on any events being run. (Ref: NY2408)

Committee Secretary
Hungerford

A Hungerford based organisation promotes nutritional, sustainable and affordable food and cooking. It also encourages food waste reduction, and holds monthly food and artisan markets.

The organisation is looking for a Committee Secretary. This role involves taking minutes at the monthly meetings, liaising with stakeholders, helping apply for grant funding and maintaining an online accounts/passwords database. Fixed monthly committee meetings are planned for 2025, probably on the first Monday of the month. The role would suit a volunteer with IT competence, good communication skills and an interest in food and cooking. (Ref: NY2648)

Comms and Content Creator Assistant
Hungerford

A Hungerford based organisation promotes nutritional, sustainable and affordable food and cooking. It also encourages food waste reduction, and holds monthly food and artisan markets.

They are looking for a volunteer who can help promote their activities on social media, and create press releases and visual/video content in collaboration with the committee.

Community Ambassador
West Berkshire

A Christian charity collects unwanted tools, refurbishes them and then sorts them into trade kits to send across the world for livelihood creation.

Community Ambassador volunteers speak on behalf of the charity and are their public face locally. This means receiving invitations from a variety of groups who would like a talk, and also contacting organisations directly.

Talks can be from 10 to 40 minutes long, and you will not be asked to speak at a meeting you are not confident to attend. The role would suit confident speakers who can talk eloquently, clearly and passionately about the charity. (Ref: NY2320)

Community Ambassador
West Berkshire

A local charity which provides essential support for those with a short-term food need is looking for Community Ambassador volunteers. The role involves educating your local community about the issue of food poverty and what the charity does, attending events to promote the charity and organising your own events, finding other charities to work alongside who could provide extra support, supporting national campaigns and volunteering at supermarket collections.

The role would suit friendly and positive volunteers who are active in the local community and comfortable speaking to groups of people. Times and days are flexible. (Ref: NY2454)

Community Builder
Newbury

A national charity that works with expectant and new parents is looking to recruit a Community Builder Volunteer. You will engage with parents in the Newbury area to understand where support is needed. You will build a team of community volunteers who offer welcoming and inclusive events and activities that help parents feel confident, connected and safe.

The role involves talking to people in the local community to understand what parents need, building a strong and inclusive community of parents, promoting events and using social media to engage local parents.

The role would suit someone with leadership, decision-making, goal setting and basic IT skills. This is a flexible role; time commitment is up to three hours a week. (Ref: NY2371)

Community Café Volunteers
Burghfield

Community spirited volunteers are being invited to get involved with a popular community café in Burghfield. The café, run on Christian principles, provides a welcoming meeting place for the community, regardless of faith. Volunteers play a crucial role in the delivery of an enjoyable café experience in a harmonious environment. Roles available include baristas, food preparation, serving and setting/packing up; ideally volunteers will be prepared to get involved with a number of different tasks.

Volunteers are needed on Monday and Wednesday mornings, and training will be provided. This is a great opportunity for cheerful people with a respectful attitude to develop new skills and friendships. (Ref: NY1458)

Community Champion
West Berkshire

Could you help promote the aims of a national cancer charity by representing them at a range of activities in the local community? The charity aims to bring chemotherapy treatment closer to the homes of cancer patients.

The role will involve activities such as meeting with people and businesses, public speaking, accepting cheques, banking income, distributing publicity materials, helping with collection boxes and running stands at community events. The role would suit volunteers with good communication and organisational skills. (Ref: NY1723)

Community Champion
West Berkshire

A Christian charity collects unwanted tools, refurbishes them and then sorts them into trade kits to send across the world for livelihood creation.

The role would suit passionate, energetic volunteers who can organise and get things done. (Ref: NY2318)

Community Connections Volunteer
West Berkshire

A charity that provides end-of-life care and helps people manage grief is seeking volunteers who can help them build connections within the local community. You'll deliver talks about the work they do to groups and businesses, and reach out to marginalised groups that might usually be less likely to access their support. The role also involves hosting stalls at community events promoting the charity's services and helping shape people's understanding of end-of-life and bereavement care.

Time commitment is around three hours a week and the role would suit reliable and warm volunteers with speaking skills, who are able to relate well to others. (Ref: NY2662)

Community Emergency Volunteer

West Berkshire

A national charity provides back-up personnel to the emergency services and local authorities in a range of situations. It is recruiting Community Emergency Volunteers who will support the official emergency response to hazards, emergencies and any other incidents that occur in the local area.

The role will be very varied depending on community needs but can range from administrative support, making refreshments and transporting equipment to clearing debris from flooding, helping set up rest centres and delivering information from emergency services to residents. You will always volunteer in a small team or as a pair. Time commitment for callouts is estimated at 2-12 hours a year. The role would suit enthusiastic volunteers who can get stuck in and help others, can follow instructions carefully and enjoy being part of a team. Having access to your own transport would be useful. (Ref: NY2683)

Community Engagement

West Berkshire

A local organisation champions the views of those using health and social care across the district, helping make sure people's needs are met. Community Engagement Volunteers are being recruited to help get more people talking about their experiences of health and care services.

This role involves planning engagement activities with other members of the team, holding engagement and information stands (for example, at GP surgeries, libraries and hospitals), talking and gathering the views of local people and conducting surveys and consultations.

The role would suit volunteers who enjoy talking to others and have an ability to travel across the district. Time commitment is two hours per week, although is flexible and will vary. (Ref: NY2435)

Community Engagement Officer

Thatcham

A new community radio service for Thatcham is looking to recruit a volunteer Community Engagement Officer.

This role involves building relationships with leaders and members of community organisations (for example official/government, clubs, charities and sports teams), maintaining a database of them and handling their enquiries. You would also maintain an online events diary, post details of events on social media and attend events where community organisations will be present.

Time commitment is 2 to 8 hours a week, depending on your availability. The role would a people person who is computer literate and has good communication skills. (Ref: NY2524)

A day centre in Tadley provides activities to older people living in North Hampshire and West Berkshire, giving their carers a break. The service caters for various needs, supporting those with dementia, Parkinson's, stroke or who are experiencing isolation.

Volunteers are needed to help with the various activities, which include bingo, quizzes, cards, crosswords and active physical games such as bean bag target and skittles. The service also serves lunch and gives opportunities for chats over coffee.

The role would suit those with good communication skills who enjoy interacting and being part of a team. The centre is open 10am-3pm Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. Volunteers usually do a half day or a day, but there is flexibility. (Ref: NY2307)

Electrical and/or Electronic Goods Repairer

Newbury/Thatcham

A project in Newbury and Thatcham is holding events where visitors can bring broken items for free repair.

Are you skilled in PAT testing, electrical or electronic repairs, computer and tablet repairs or in giving mobile phone advice? Why not join the team as an electrical/electronics goods repairer? Volunteers will help visitors mend items if the repair is feasible (if not, other advice on repair may be given). You will talk through the process with the owner thus passing skills on.

You don't need to be professionally trained, just someone who enjoys fixing things. Events run monthly on a Sunday, alternating each month between Newbury (afternoon) and Thatcham (morning). Time commitment for an event is 3.5 hours. (Ref: NY2560)

Employability Mentor
West Berkshire

Do you have visual impairment and experience of work? A charity that supports local people who are blind or visually impaired is recruiting volunteer mentors for its Employability Project.

You will be supporting an individual on their journey towards employment or training. They might be undergoing interviews, taking on new volunteering or training and be nervous about what's to come. This is a virtual role and will require phone or video calls.

The charity is looking for people have been through the process of changing their future through employment, volunteering or training. You will know how starting a new endeavour can affect your confidence and self-worth. (Ref: NY2228)

Energy Efficiency
Events Volunteer
Newbury, Thatcham,
Hungerford area

An advice service run by a national charity helps people stay warm and healthy in their homes, lower their fuel bills and reduce their impact on the environment. The service would love your help in reducing fuel poverty in West Berkshire. They are looking for volunteers to run weekly drop-in sessions in a public location, to raise awareness of the project. The role involves giving energy efficiency guidance to the community. You would be supported by an experienced caseworker initially and receive training.

A 2-4 hour session would be run once a week or fortnight (when can be tailored to suit your availability). The role would suit a friendly volunteer who finds it easy to chat to people of all ages and backgrounds. (Ref: NY2636)

Engineer/Mechanic
West Berkshire

A local charity provides holidays on purpose-built canal boats for disabled, disadvantaged or elderly people and their carers.

Could you join them as a volunteer engineer/mechanic? This role involves maintaining and checking boat systems, including engines, between hires during the summer, and undertaking more complex tasks in the winter. Boat "turnarounds" take place on Friday and Saturday mornings throughout the summer, and the maintenance team meets every Tuesday (mainly mornings, but often going into early afternoon) in the winter – the online rostering system means you can sign up as and when you are available.

No experience is needed as on the job training is given, but they would be particularly interested in hearing from anyone with experience of diesel engines or electrical systems. Volunteering takes place in Great Bedwyn. (Ref: NY2633)

Engineer Volunteer
West Berkshire

A national charity helps people with disabilities become more independent by providing custom-made equipment that is not available to buy.

The charity's Berkshire branch is interested in hearing from skilled DIYers, model makers and craftspeople who have access to their own workshop, as well as the ability to design and make unique equipment that can help someone with a disability.

You will work from home, although you will need your own transport to visit clients and find out about their needs and buy equipment. The cost of materials and petrol will be reimbursed. (Ref: NY1797)

Event Coordinator
Newbury

Could you help plan and deliver a pancake race event in 2026? A charity that supports refugees and asylum seekers locally is looking for a volunteer to coordinate the project, which will raise vital funds and awareness.

In this role, you'll be involved with planning and logistics, being the main point of contact for those participating, liaising with local partners and attending and managing the race day. The role requires flexibility and availability during the working week. Time commitment is 4-8 hours a week. The role would suit a friendly volunteer with previous event coordination or logistics experience, strong organisation and communication skills and knowledge of the Newbury and West Berkshire area. You will receive input from a local organisation that has experience of running events in the town. (Ref: NY2716)

Event/Fundraising Volunteer

West Berkshire

A charity that supports children and young people who are facing, or have experienced, the death of someone close, is seeking volunteers to support at fundraising events.

The role could involve setting up stalls at events, managing cashboxes, selling merchandise and raffle tickets, counting takings and being an ambassador for the charity.

Events usually take place at weekends. The charity will give you plenty of notice about upcoming events and there is no expectation for volunteers to be available at all of them. (Ref: NY1919)

Event Helpers

West Berkshire

A Community Interest Company was set up to build inclusion and representation specifically for children, young people, families and other organisations connected by illness and disability. They have developed characters all of whom represent different illnesses and disabilities. The characters and world where they live have been made into props which has been turned into a small stage, and are accompanied by sensory activities.

They are looking for volunteers to do small jobs at the events they attend and organise, from helping with activities to doing some set up, take down, speaking with the public and more. Events are on an ad-hoc basis and you can choose which you attend. The role would suit fun loving, kind hearted volunteers who are good at interacting with children and families. (Ref: NY2600)

West Berkshire

A national assistance dog charity is looking for volunteers to help at events. This role involves raising awareness of what they do, handing out leaflets, taking donations, helping with activities (such as selling raffle tickets), meeting with people of all ages and raising awareness of volunteer opportunities.

The role would suit polite, friendly and personable volunteers who have flexibility to visit different locations. There is no minimum commitment, and the charity is always grateful for an extra pair of hands to help with setting up events and tidying up afterwards. (Ref: NY2642)

Events Manager or Partner

East Woodhay

A village hall south-west of, and about 15 minutes' drive of, central Newbury is seeking a committed volunteer with an interest in organising events. Do you enjoy hosting, meeting new people, and planning events and engagement activities? Could you use these skills to drive weddings and parties to the hall, or help the hall run events of its own such as wine and cheese evenings, games nights and more? Can you coordinate the things needed for an event and work with the rest of the committee to achieve goals?

Time commitment is expected to be a couple of hours a week. The committee meets roughly once a month, with meetings held in the evenings. The role would suit a volunteer who can independently plan their time and coordinate with businesses, and who has experience in professional events management or just a passion for hosting and organising. Your own laptop and Internet access will be required. Patience, determination and a sense of humour are very useful! (Ref: NY2512)

Events Support Volunteer

West Berkshire

A charity which protects churches at risk and repairs damage from sometimes years of neglect is looking for volunteers to support with its events. You would help the event organiser in delivering events such as theatre performances and concerts, tea parties, services and talks. You could be involved in marshalling, providing refreshments, ticketing, marketing or helping with set-up.

Time commitment can depend on your own availability; if you are available it would be helpful to attend Church Plan meetings. The role would suit enthusiastic volunteers, who may have experience of supporting events and promoting them. (Ref: NY2531)

Events Volunteer

Newbury

Could you volunteer to provide support with the running of events and activities at the library? You could be supporting the library service with half term events, author talks and the annual local author book fair.

Tasks include assisting library staff with the delivery of events, assisting with preparation and clearing away, welcoming attendees and directing them, encouraging participation and collecting feedback.

They are looking for enthusiastic, friendly and approachable volunteers with the ability to effectively communicate with all ages. (Ref: NY2605)

Exercise Therapy Assistants

Thatcham

Many disabled people find it difficult to take as much exercise as they want – but a therapy centre in Thatcham is working to solve that problem for disabled people across West Berkshire. A specialised gym, equipped with power-assisted exercise equipment, is running as a not for profit venture.

You could help by joining a small team of volunteers who provide a warm welcome to people using the centre. This will include booking them in, showing them round the centre and providing encouragement. Ideal for personable volunteers who are good at making conversation. (Ref: NY1439)

Exhibitions Volunteer

Greenham

A visitor attraction in Newbury focusing on Greenham's history is seeking exhibition volunteers.

This role involves working with others to develop a programme of exhibition and outreach events. You will assist with working out logistics, scheduling and allocating tasks, as well as helping with set-up and delivery.

Time commitment is flexible to suit you. The building is open every weekend, Wednesday to Friday through the week and occasional evenings. There is no minimum commitment and the organisation will be as flexible as possible in the context of their opening hours. The role would suit a volunteer who loves being around people, who is full of enthusiasm and hopes to inspire people of all ages. (Ref: NY2149)

Explorer Scout Team Members

Thatcham

Could you help run an Explorer Scout unit in Thatcham? Volunteer team members are being recruited to plan and deliver a balanced and engaging programme of activities for young people aged 14 to 18. You'll be guiding them in achieving badges and awards, and ensure a safe and inclusive environment.

Meetings are held on Mondays from 8:00-9:30pm. Additional time may be required for planning, attending camps, expeditions and other events. The role would suit enthusiastic volunteers with good leadership, organisational and interpersonal skills. (Ref: NY2665)

"There's so much available! I'm glad there's a Volunteer Centre to help me find the right role."

A local charity provides a home and support to young people who are leaving care or who are homeless. They are looking for volunteers to join their team to help with fundraising.

The role may include developing community fundraising and awareness events, helping on stalls at events, distributing leaflets and flyers, delivering presentations to schools, attending cheque presentations and approaching organisations for sponsorship or donations.

Time commitment is 1-2 hours a fortnight and the role would suit volunteers with good communication skills. Previous fundraising experience would be a bonus. (Ref: NY2651)

Fundraising Volunteers
West Berkshire

A local charity which is dedicated to saving lives through providing emergency services is looking for volunteers to join its fundraising team. This role could involve helping at fundraising events, public speaking or delivering fundraising materials. Hours vary to suit your availability. (Ref: NY499)

G

Gardener
Tadley

A charity supports people with learning disabilities and autism, who may also have sight loss, to realise their goals each and every day. The charity is seeking gardening volunteers to support its homes in maintaining their outdoor spaces so that the people they support can enjoy them. Volunteers support with tasks such as general garden maintenance; watering, planting, weeding and pruning; maintaining flower beds and creating and improving sensory garden spaces.

Timings are flexible according to your availability, however a regular commitment would be appreciated, even if only once a fortnight. The role would suit friendly and reliable volunteers, who are knowledgeable about plants and confident using gardening equipment. (Ref: NY2384)

Gardener
Thatcham

If you love gardening, don't mind getting your hands dirty and are able to help with maintenance tasks, you may be interested in this volunteering role with a local charity that supports children with disabilities and their families.

The charity is looking for someone who can help keep its garden and outdoor areas neat and well-maintained. The main responsibilities are mowing, trimming and fertilising, and pruning and trimming trees and bushes. Other duties are maintaining gardening equipment and machinery, conducting inspections, performing preventative maintenance and basic repairs/maintenance.

Time commitment is 1-2 hours a week and the role is available any day other than Sunday. The role would suit someone with basic gardening and maintenance skills, and handyperson skills. (Ref: NY2491)

Gardener
Newbury, Thatcham

A local service that supports people affected by mental health issues runs a gardening club where they adopt raised beds to plant and maintain. They are looking for a volunteer to run the club, providing guidance and support to help participants plant and maintain the various raised bed locations (situated in Newbury and Thatcham). The service wants to grow produce that can be used for meals, and for the beds to support local wildlife and pollinators.

The role involves planning planting, choosing and purchasing seeds, giving guidance on maintenance and sharing knowledge, arranging a watering rota and being an ambassador for the charity in the wider community. The role would suit a reliable and kind volunteer with a good knowledge of plant care and an empathy for those with mental health issues. The club will run on a weekday (times to be agreed). (Ref: NY2514)

Gardener
Beech Hill

A charity which has a garden in Beech Hill is seeking volunteers to join their friendly Saturday gardening group on the second Saturday of each month. The garden is used during the week by clients with disabilities or ill health. This role does not involve supporting clients, and involves helping to carry out tasks that clients were unable to complete during the week.

Tasks include watering, hedge trimming, clearing pathways, weeding, digging, hoeing, mowing and pruning. The group starts at 10am and lasts about four hours (dependent on tasks and the time you can give). This would suit volunteers with some understanding of basic gardening skills, who are prepared to be outdoors in most weathers. (Ref: NY2525)

Gardening Assistants
Headley

A local charity runs a project aiming to give people from all walks of life the chance to learn about growing a range of fruit and vegetables. There are many volunteering, training and learning opportunities at the 1.5 hectare site, offering a training area and educational facility for local groups and individuals, promoting interest and awareness in local food.

Volunteers with an interest in gardening are needed to assist with the many tasks it takes to keep the site running smoothly. (Ref: NY1182)

Gardening Volunteer
Newbury

A local charity provides a home and support to young people who are leaving care or who are homeless. They are seeking volunteers to look after the gardens and landscaped areas in and around one of their houses in Newbury. You may be working by yourself or with other volunteers, carrying out tasks such as weeding, watering, planting, pruning and litter picking.

Time commitment may be up to two hours at a time, with different hours needed throughout the seasons depending on what tasks are required. This would suit a friendly volunteer with some experience of gardening or horticulture and use of hand tools or a willingness to learn. (Ref: NY2652)

Garden Project Volunteer
Englefield

A local not-for-profit project produces and sells fruit, vegetables and flowers. Volunteers are needed to help maintain the two-acre site. Maintenance includes pruning, preparing the soil, sowing, planting, weeding, mowing the grass and picking the crops.

A variety of tasks are available to suit all abilities and preferences. There is a chance to specialise in a particular area e.g. soft fruit or flowers or you can join in with any of the activities. All tools are provided and no qualifications are needed. The gardening sessions run Tuesday to Friday, 9:30am to 12:30pm. Time commitment is flexible. (Ref: NY705)

Garden Volunteer
Thatcham

Help is needed on Fridays, 10am-midday, to maintain a community sensory garden in Thatcham. The garden is a tranquil space designed to engage all five senses. This volunteer role is ideal for nature lovers and responsibilities include assisting with garden maintenance, helping with planting, ensuring pathways and sensory elements are clean and accessible, supporting in composting and eco-friendly practices and optionally engaging with visitors to share knowledge of the plants and features.

No prior experience is needed but a passion for plants and the outdoors is helpful. Volunteers will need the ability to perform physical tasks such as lifting and be willing to work in various weather conditions. (Ref: NY2630)

General Volunteer
West Berkshire

A charity which protects churches at risk and repairs damage from sometimes years of neglect has a variety of ways in which volunteers can be involved. You could help with cleaning and looking after the church buildings, mapping walking or cycling routes to encourage visitors to appreciate the sites, update social media or create walk around or audio guides.

Time commitment is flexible. The charity can adapt the role to suit your skills and experience, but an enthusiasm for historic buildings is a great advantage. (Ref: NY2529)

Governor
Newbury

A Newbury secondary school is looking for new governors to enhance their team. Are you passionate about education? Do you have skills and experience in finance and education? Are you enthusiastic, confident and able to work collaboratively? Can you commit to three or four evening meetings per term, plus an occasional daytime visit?

The Governing Body sets the strategic direction and ensures the educational performance, management and financial health of the school. The role would suit collaborative, curious and creative volunteers who can demonstrate commitment and have an ability to challenge with the aim of driving improvement. (Ref: NY2707)

Governors – primary school and nursery
Thatcham

A Thatcham primary school and nursery is looking for new governors to join its committed and experienced board. Governors work closely with the headteacher and other staff to set the strategic direction of the school, and monitor the educational and financial performance.

This is a chance to grow both personally and professionally, and make a real impact. Time commitment is a few hours a month for meetings and conversations with staff. They are ideally looking for people with ICT, finance or HR backgrounds but an interest in education and leadership are more important than specific experience. (Ref: NY2624)

Grief Support Volunteer
Thatcham

Could you help someone experiencing grief? Volunteers are needed to help people feel heard and less alone at weekly drop-in sessions. At the sessions, you will support people to share their experiences of grief, guide compassionate conversations and provide signposting to relevant help.

Volunteers will receive training to be able to support people in a group setting. You will need to be able to actively listen and show compassion whilst also knowing when to step back. Time commitment is two hours every 2-3 weeks, with some flexibility; the role is on Tuesdays between 10:00am and 12:00pm in Thatcham. (Ref: NY2578)

Group Facilitators
West Berkshire

A new local group will offer peer support to those who have suffered bereavement due to suicide. Volunteer group facilitators, who have experienced bereavement due to suicide and are at least two years post bereavement, are being recruited.

The group will provide a safe meeting place where participants can talk about their feelings and experiences, obtain practical help and support, and be referred to other organisations who can help. Training will be provided by the national body to enable you to help others. Facilitators will need to be empathetic, non-judgemental, well-organised and able to coordinate simple arrangements for mutual support groups. Groups meet by arrangement which could be monthly and on Zoom as required. (Ref: NY2462)

Group Leaders for Activity Groups
Newbury

A Newbury charity provides social and learning opportunities for those who have retired or are contemplating retirement.

They are looking for Group Leaders, ideally retired or part retired. Group Leaders join as members and then volunteer their time to organise their group/s. They are currently looking for volunteers to lead the following proposed groups: singing, wine tasting, technology for older people, walking with pet dogs welcome, chair yoga/seated exercise, acrylic painting, needlework, more sports groups and beginners German. The most important skill is being able to organise a group and encourage active participation. Enthusiasm and the ability to listen and be sociable are key attributes. (Ref: NY2621)

Guide Assistant Leaders
Pangbourne

Help ensure that as many girls and young women as possible get the chance to experience the fun and challenge of guiding. Volunteer Girl Guide Assistant Leaders are being recruited for groups in the Pangbourne area.

The role would suit those with an ability to relate to young people, and there are various groups ranging from ages five to eighteen. Training will be provided. (Ref: NY1244)

Guide Leaders
Thatcham

Help ensure that as many girls and young women as possible get the chance to experience the fun and challenge of Girl Guiding.

Volunteers are being sought for Rainbow, Brownie, Guide and Ranger groups in the Thatcham area. This is an ideal opportunity to gain experience in working with young people, or to use your existing expertise.

You will need good communication skills and an ability to relate to young people. You will be provided with good support and ongoing training opportunities. (Ref: NY1177)

Guide Unit Helper
Donnington

A fun natured volunteer is needed to get involved with a Newbury branch of the UK's largest voluntary organisation for girls and young women.

With the support of volunteers, members get involved with a range of fun activities and challenges, camps and residential.

If you have spare time on Friday evenings, are fun natured and have a can-do attitude, they would be interested in hearing from you. (Ref: NY1507)

H

Handybus Drivers
Newbury, Thatcham

Newbury and Thatcham Handybus helps people who are unable to use public transport to get out on shopping trips and social outings of all kinds. The minibuses are driven by volunteers who give up some of their spare time to contribute to those in the Newbury community.

New volunteer drivers are always welcomed, ideal for those with empathy and awareness of the needs of the elderly and disabled.

Volunteers must be 25+, have two years driving experience and be prepared to undergo a short assessment (which we will arrange). (Ref: NY109)

Handybus Shopper
Thatcham/Calcot

Are you a friendly and patient person who loves a natter and a bit of shopping and has time to spare?

Volunteer Centre West Berkshire is looking for volunteers to join the Handybus Thatcham Shopper on its route to Sainsburys in Calcot to offer older people help with their shopping in store (for example, accompanying them or pushing a wheelchair, helping pick items off the shelves or pack bags).

On the journey you can chat with the volunteer driver and also assist with embarking and disembarking passengers and loading shopping into the bus.

Time commitment is three hours on a Friday (9am-12pm) and the role would suit a volunteer with a good sense of humour and outgoing personality. (Ref: NY2377)

Handyperson/Caretaker
Newbury

A youth organisation is seeking a handyperson/caretaker to assist the general upkeep and maintenance of their building in Newbury. This is a flexible role that will support the smooth operation of the building by ensuring facilities are well-maintained, presentable and ready for use.

Key responsibilities include light maintenance (e.g. minor repairs, replacing light bulbs), checking facilities are in working order, basic cleaning and tidying, seasonal tasks such as sweeping leaves and setting up for hirers.

The role would suit someone with DIY and minor repair skills, communication skills, flexibility in availability and the ability to volunteer independently and take initiative. (Ref: NY2626)

Harm Reduction Recovery Practitioner
Newbury

Volunteer for a local substance use treatment service as a Harm Reduction Recovery Practitioner. In this role, you will support the delivery of a wide range of interventions for service users. This will include giving alcohol awareness and harm minimisation advice, supporting in the completion of assessments, helping practitioners with a caseload of service users, assisting service users to access wider services and participating in meetings.

Time commitment is flexible but perhaps a minimum of three hours weekly (hours are predominately 9 to 5). A positive attitude and desire to learn are essential, as well as a non-judgemental approach to those facing drug or alcohol problems. (Ref: NY2691)

Health & Safety Officer
West Berkshire

A local charity provides essential support for those with a short-term food need. The charity is looking to recruit a volunteer who can assist their Warehouse Manager with implementing the parts of the Health and Safety Policy that are delegated by the trustees. You will help enable the charity's activities by firmly minimising the risks of accident, promoting a friendly, healthy culture.

The role needs a volunteer who can remain aware of statutory and best practice procedures and ensure they are used where appropriate, maintain the necessary paperwork such as risk assessments and minimise the risk of disruption arising from accidents or claims. The role also includes maintaining accident and suggestion books, seeing that posters are displayed, carrying out inspections and helping with training of new volunteers.

The role requires strong communication skills and an ability and willingness to keep up to date with requirements. Days are flexible; you would usually be doing at least one visit a week on a weekday. (Ref: NY2449)

Hedgehog Carers
Thatcham

A small Thatcham based charity has been working hard for many years to care for sick, injured or orphaned hedgehogs, with the aim of releasing those capable back to the wild. If you have an interest in helping wildlife, then you could get involved by providing much needed help with the general care and cleaning of the hedgehogs – which at busy times can be as many as 100 or more!

Ideal for enthusiastic and committed individuals, willing to get involved with practical, hands on volunteering. Will be dirty and smelly – but the rewards of discovering the characters of the little creatures as you care for them will make it worthwhile. (Ref: NY1066)

Helper
Woolhampton

A West Berkshire charity supports stroke survivors locally. It runs a rehabilitation and reablement group on Tuesdays in Woolhampton between 9.45am and 2:30pm, for which volunteer helpers are required. At the group, stroke survivors receive physio, exercises, mentally stimulating activities and friendship.

In this role, you will chat to group members, help with refreshments and lunch, assist with activities and equipment and tidy up. Volunteers are never on their own and are not required to carry out any personal care.

The role would suit patient, helpful and sociable volunteers. (Ref: NY2373)

Helpline Volunteers
West Berkshire

Do you have excellent listening skills? Are you caring and non-judgemental? A charity which supports survivors of rape and sexual abuse is seeking volunteers for its helpline.

You will support callers by providing a safe space for them to share their feelings, giving information and signposting them to other relevant services.

Training, support and monthly supervision will be given. Volunteers will need to be competent users of Microsoft software and the Internet and have good time-management skills. Time commitment is 2-3 hours a week, and volunteering is home-based. (Ref: NY2369)

Horse Welfare Advisor
West Berkshire

Volunteer Welfare Advisors are being recruited locally by a national horse charity. Advisors help to prevent horse welfare concerns through advice and education. Advisors visit horses when a concern is reported. If the horse's welfare is compromised, but not severely, they will attempt to locate the owner; the charity works with owners to provide support and education. In serious cases, advisors will work with enforcement or welfare organisations. Monitoring may sometimes be required but no immediate action.

Welfare Advisors should be passionate educators and knowledgeable about horse care with extensive practical experience (equivalent to BHS Stage 3 Groom as minimum). The role would suit great communicators, able to positively influence people. Volunteers respond to welfare concerns within a 45-minute drive of home or work. (Ref: NY2458)

Horticultural Team Volunteer
Hampstead Norreys

A local visitor attraction houses over 600 species of plants. Because there are so many species, volunteers are needed to join the organisation's horticultural team. Duties include watering, construction and planting of new beds, plant maintenance and lots of physical work!

Although experience is not essential for this role, a background in horticulture of any kind is preferable. Time commitment is one set day per week, or two afternoons. (Ref: NY679)

House Experience Volunteer – Room Guide
Basildon

A local National Trust property is looking for volunteer room guides, who could share their enthusiasm for the property with visitors. You would play a key role in making visits inspiring and engaging experiences, providing inspirational stories, curious facts and practical information. Room guides also help ensure the health and safety of visitors, and safeguard the property and its collections.

Volunteers will ideally commit to two sessions a month. Guides are needed every day, 10:30-4:00 (until 5:00 in summer), and the role would suit volunteers who can provide a warm, friendly welcome. (Ref: NY773)

HR Trustee
Newbury

Are you an experienced HR professional with a commitment to social impact? A West Berkshire charity which provides free mental health support to young people is seeking a dedicated and skilled individual to join them as a trustee, bringing their expertise in Human Resources and helping shape future charitable endeavours.

The role involves providing strategic insight to enhance organisational structure and policies, overseeing development of new HR policies, ensuring compliance with employment law and good practice, collaborating with other trustees to shape HR policies and contributing to fostering an inclusive and supportive organisational culture. Trustees hold a bi-monthly meeting in the evening. Additional hours vary as appropriate. The role would suit a good communicator with proven HR expertise. (Ref: NY2527)

I

Independent Visitor
West Berkshire

Could you volunteer and make a difference to a local young person in care? An Independent Visitor is an adult volunteer who provides support and friendship to a young person in care. This involves establishing a long-term supportive relationship where the young person will have the opportunity to develop their interests, learn new skills and build their self-esteem.

This role provides an opportunity to make a positive difference to the life of a vulnerable young person. It would suit a dedicated volunteer who can be a good role model. Training is provided and the time commitment is a few hours once a month (visits usually happen at the weekend) for a minimum of two years. (Ref: NY2387)

Information and Events Volunteer

West Berkshire

A local charity that supports people who are blind or visually impaired is looking for Information and Events Volunteers to help run information or fundraising stands in the local community to raise awareness, fundraise and to recruit new volunteers. This could be at local fetes or festivals, community events, shopping centres, sports events and eye clinics.

Time commitment varies and is very flexible. The role would suit a friendly and cheerful volunteer with good interpersonal skills. (Ref: NY2463)

Information Room Volunteers

West Berkshire

This is an opportunity to join a dedicated team of trained volunteers who enjoy helping people to find out the right information about medical conditions and other related issues. Following training, you will join a team in the local hospital who are kept busy signposting patients and visitors to accredited information and useful services.

Ideal if you have good communication skills, a friendly nature and can show a natural empathy to people from time to time who might be distressed, anxious or worried. Good basic IT skills will be required, but training in specific systems will be provided. (Ref: NY377)

Invigilator

Newbury

A local charity that provides apprenticeships and training is seeking conscientious volunteers to support their examinations through invigilation. In this role, you'll support with preparing the room, providing a calm and quiet environment, keeping time, responding appropriately to any needs, providing basic tech support during online tests, collecting answer sheets and ensuring regulations are followed.

Full training will be given. Exams are typically 1-2 hours on Fridays, although more days are possible between May and July. The role would suit calm volunteers with attention to detail. (Ref: NY2661)

J

Jumble Sale Organisers

Thatcham

The local branch of a cat welfare charity is looking for volunteers to help with organising its fundraising jumble sales, which take place in Thatcham one Saturday every other month. In this role, which could be shared, you would be helping to make everything run smoothly for the jumble team.

Tasks may include booking the hall, contacting the jumble team before events to check availability, collecting items/resources needed for the sale from the charity's centre and helping with set up/take down and running stalls at the sale. The role would suit volunteers who enjoy leading and being part of a team, are comfortable communicating with the public and are happy to be in a busy environment. (Ref: NY2682)

K

L

Learning and Participation Volunteer

Newbury

A local museum is looking for volunteers who can help run activities for children and their families/carers mainly during the school holidays. You will help make visitors feel welcome and ensure their visits run as smoothly as possible by assisting in the fun activities.

The role will involve contributing ideas for activities, preparing materials, setting up, helping deliver them, tidying and assisting with evaluation.

The role would suit reliable volunteers with the ability to communicate with people of all ages. Volunteers should have a good general standard of written and spoken English.

The role is expected to involve 1-6 days commitment a month (mostly in the school holidays on Fridays, and occasional evenings and weekends in term time). (Ref: NY2065)

Legal Advisor

Newbury

A local charity is looking for a fully qualified legal executive or barrister from any discipline, to provide legal advice on family law to victims of domestic violence and abuse. The volunteer must be familiar with family law and accept legal aid.

Legal advice surgeries are currently being held over the phone due to social distancing requirements. The minimum commitment is three surgeries per year. Each surgery will involve three hours of volunteering, with clinic dates being arranged around your availability.

Volunteers should be empathetic, non-judgemental and have good communication skills. (Ref: NY1252)

Lesson Volunteers

Hampstead Norreys

Do you enjoy working outdoors and have a love of animals and supporting others? A local organisation provides pony riding lessons to children with physical and learning disabilities. Volunteers are needed to help prepare the ponies for the lessons, act as a pony leader or to walk alongside the rider giving support.

The time commitment is approximately two hours a week, during the day and in term-time only. Experience of horse or pony care is welcomed, although not essential as training can be provided. (Ref: NY62)

Librarian Volunteer

Wash Common

A community library in south Newbury is seeking volunteer librarians who could help out with its day-to-day operations. Tasks include issuing items, helping users access books and services, shelving and tidying. The role would suit someone who enjoys meeting people of all ages.

Volunteers are requested to commit to a 2-hour slot, which is carried out with someone else. The number of slots you volunteer for is up to you and is very flexible. The library is open on Saturday mornings, Monday and Wednesday afternoons and Friday mornings. (Ref: NY2125)

Listening Volunteers

Newbury

A listening service based in Newbury provides confidential emotional support to individuals experiencing feelings of distress or despair, including those that may lead to suicide. The service is looking for Listening Volunteers who can offer a safe space for people to share their feelings without fear of judgement. Listening Volunteers provide empathetic support that can help someone in their darkest moments. You will respond to people through calls, e-mails, online or face-to-face.

Volunteers commit to at least one 3-4 hour shift a week, including a night shift every five weeks. The role would suit reliable and empathetic volunteers with good listening skills. Comprehensive training and support is provided. (Ref: NY2637)

Literacy Mentors

West Berkshire

If you have an interest in reading then consider joining a Berkshire-based scheme set up to encourage primary school children to discover the love of books. Volunteers are needed to train as mentors and meet the increasing demand in West Berkshire. You'll experience the rewards of watching the children gain confidence as they learn in sessions of reading, talking and playing games.

No special skills are required, just lots of patience, a love of reading and an interest in supporting children. Ideally volunteers will commit to an hour and a half twice a week during term time, but once a week will be considered. (Ref: NY769)

Local Authority Governor

Burghfield

Are you passionate about education and supporting local pupils, staff and leaders? Two schools in the Burghfield area are looking for a local authority governor to join the governing board. In this role, you will help shape the schools' future, gain valuable leadership experience, and volunteer with a friendly, dedicated team. Time commitment is around ten hours monthly. Meetings are held on the last Thursday of every month at 6pm; there is also a Finance, Premises and Resources meeting held at 8.45am the same day.

They are particularly keen to hear those with skills in finance, business management, HR/people management and health and safety. No governance experience is needed as full training is given. (Ref: NY2705)

Local Fundraiser
West Berkshire

A local organisation provides reading coaching for adults. A volunteer fundraiser is needed to ensure the group raises the funds it needs through applications to local funding organisations and businesses.

The role involves planning how much money needs to be raised, writing funding applications, arranging fundraising events, maintaining a database of fundraisers and thanking donors. The role would suit a friendly and organised volunteer; experience of writing funding bids is desirable, though not essential. Time commitment is an average of three hours a month. (Ref: NY2415)

Local Group Volunteer
West Berkshire

A Christian charity collects unwanted tools, refurbishes them and then sorts them into trade kits to send across the world for livelihood creation.

The charity is recruiting volunteers to join its local group. There are many possibilities for activities local group members can be involved with, but tasks may include collecting tools from requests made by the general public, promoting the charity to generate local tool donation requests, storing tools and arrange collection, sorting and carrying out basic tool refurbishment, visiting local events and giving talks to encourage support.

You decide when you meet, collect tools and carry out refurbishment – most local groups meet 2-3 days a week between them. (Ref: NY2400)

Local news writers & broadcasters
Newbury

A community radio station is looking for keen volunteers to write news stories for its website. If you are interested in local radio and news impacting West Berkshire communities, this could be a great opportunity for you.

Training will be given and there are existing sources for news which can be used. As well as the chance to write news and learn how to operate the website, there is also the opportunity to record stories and broadcast. This role can be done in a few hours a week to suit your availability. This role requires good writing skills. An ability to use common software tools such as WordPress is helpful, but training can be provided. A sense of being part of the local community and a wish to share interesting stories is key. (Ref: NY2517)

Lunch Club Volunteers
Lambourn

An initiative in Lambourn provides a safe, warm place to meet and have a free meal for those impacted by the cost of living and rural isolation. Lunch club sessions offer good company and a delicious hot meal without pressure or judgement.

Volunteer help is needed for the lunch club between 11:30 and 13:00 each Thursday. The role involves setting up the hall and then serving food to club participants. No experience is required and food handling training will be given. The role would be a good fit for those who enjoy meeting people and making others feel welcome. (Ref: NY2495)

M

Maintenance Team Volunteer
Hampstead Norreys

A local visitor attraction which houses over 600 species of plants and animals is looking for a volunteer to assist its maintenance team. The attraction's greenhouses require ongoing maintenance and development, and there are always new exhibits to construct.

Although experience is not essential, knowledge of carpentry, building or another related trade would be welcomed. Good team working skills are essential, and full training will be given. Time commitment is one day a week on a Tuesday. (Ref: NY680)

Maintenance Volunteer Steward
Newbury

A local arts venue is seeking a volunteer to perform general maintenance and minor repairs. Tasks include fixing doors, patching walls, replacing lightbulbs, tightening fixtures, seasonal upkeep such as clearing paths and minor landscaping and assisting with basic painting.

Time commitment is up to four hours per week on a weekday between the hours of 9 to 5 (preferably on a Monday, but this could be swapped to another day if required). The role requires basic knowledge of tools, repairs and general maintenance and good problem solving skills. Previous handyperson/maintenance experience is useful and volunteers benefit from free tickets to some performances. (Ref: NY2718)

Market Support Assistant
Hungerford

A Hungerford based organisation promotes nutritional, sustainable and affordable food and cooking. It also encourages food waste reduction. The organisation holds monthly food and artisan markets in the town, and help is needed to set up and run them.

As part of a small team of volunteers, you'll be involved with setting up tables, chairs and gazebos, meeting and greeting and asking for donations. Help is also needed with updating and putting up advertising signs around Hungerford ten days before each market.

The markets run on the second Sunday of the month (April to October). The role would suit volunteers with team spirit and a good sense of humour. (Ref: NY2647)

Market Volunteer
Highclere

A market in Highclere is held six times a year on a Saturday, and has the sole purpose of raising money for local charities and supporting local businesses.

The market would welcome new volunteers who can help with delivering leaflets promoting it, carparking, setting up stalls and directing stall holders to their pitches, serving on the brunch bar or putting up posters. Time commitment is half a day on market day and flexible depending on which tasks are most appealing. The role would suit friendly and approachable volunteers who want to be involved in a fun community event. (Ref: NY2708)

Marketing and Social Media Manager
Newbury

Help a charity that promotes the use of the canal and its boat trips by volunteering as a marketing/social media manager. They are looking to bring their marketing and media presence into modern times – could you use your skills and enthusiasm to help? The organisation draws on some help from local media, but would like to expand this.

Knowledge and experience around marketing and the use of social media would be ideal, but they are looking for someone who wants to evolve things, get involved, come up with ideas and challenge the way things are done at the moment. The charity holds meetings once a quarter in Newbury (Wednesday evenings), but the role is hybrid. (Ref: NY2518)

Meals on Wheels Volunteers
Newbury

A local charity that promotes the wellbeing of older people in the Newbury and Thatcham area needs more drivers to assist with the delivery of meals on wheels.

This vital service is needed to help people who find it hard to prepare their own meals and do their own shopping. For them, it is a lifeline, and their families can feel reassured they are having a hot meal. There are rounds covering North, South and Central Newbury and the Thatcham area, with about 10-15 deliveries on each round. Drivers are needed Monday to Friday and on Sundays and the time required is 11:30am to 1pm. Ideal for caring, friendly people who have empathy with the needs of the elderly. (Ref: NY1123)

Mentor
Reading area

A charitable project covering the Reading area supports young people aged 11-25 who face disadvantage through mentoring and creating opportunities. They match young people to volunteer mentors who act as a role model, with support tailored to each individual's needs and aspirations.

Mentoring may cover areas such as sustaining education or employment, engaging positively in school and the local community, steering away from crime and risk-taking behaviour and developing positive social-emotional development, wellbeing and self-esteem.

Mentors commit to a minimum of twelve months of volunteering for around an hour a week. The role would suit empathetic volunteers with good listening skills and a sense of humour. Previous experience of working with young people is desirable but not essential. (Ref: NY2140)

Minibus Escort
Beech Hill

A garden in the Beech Hill area of West Berkshire is used to bring about positive changes to the lives of people with disabilities.

A volunteer minibus escort is required to support the driver when collecting and taking home the charity's clients from Basingstoke train station. Your role would include helping clients when boarding and disembarking, supervising clients during the journey, and becoming familiar with routes to assist the driver.

The charity is looking for cover on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, 8:45-10:00am and/or afternoons from 2.55-4.00pm. This is not a driving role, so is open to those who do not have a driving licence. It is envisaged that this will be a shared role amongst several volunteers. (Ref: NY1773)

Minibus Drivers
Theale, Pangbourne

Help the elderly and disabled in the Theale and Pangbourne area to get out and about on shopping and social outings by driving minibuses, wheelchair assisted cars or your own car.

Ideal for sociable and supportive volunteers. For minibus driving, volunteers must have a D1/D1e category on their licence and be prepared to undergo a short test. Time commitment is flexible. (Ref: NY1237)

Minute Taker Volunteer
Newbury

Volunteer Centre West Berkshire is looking for a volunteer who can accompany our CEO on various days throughout the month to minute take and write up the minutes and actions of our forum meetings. These forums provide an opportunity for voluntary sector organisations to support each other and work together.

Meetings take place during the week, daytime. We are looking for someone for varied days - often mornings but sometimes afternoons too. Meetings are typically quarterly for 2 hours on every day of the week and then there will be the time to write up and send the minutes and update the action list. The role would suit someone with excellent English who has experience of minute taking and is competent in using Word and e-mail. (Ref: NY2631)

Missing Pets Officer
Thatcham

A community radio station for Thatcham is planning to offer a missing pets service, and is looking for a caring and organised animal lover to join its team.

This role involves responding to reports from owners of missing pets, logging these cases on the internal system and posting lost notices on the website and on social media. You would also look out for cases of lost pets, approaching the owners and offering help. There may be an opportunity to create on-air bulletins giving a round-up of missing pet cases. You will meet with pet owners and voluntary organisations, but would not be required to be directly involved in searches. Time commitment is 8 hours per month, volunteering flexibly from home using your own computer, with attendance at meetings and events as required. (Ref: NY2670)

Mentor
West Berkshire

A charity which provides long-term solutions to the problems of crime and social exclusion is looking for volunteer mentors for its young peoples' project.

In this role, you will support vulnerable young people by engaging with them and offering them support and guidance in addressing their offending and inappropriate behaviour. Tasks undertaken as a mentor may be signposting the young person to other agencies, helping with form filling and supporting with navigation of their community.

Time commitment is two hours a week, usually during the day. Mentors commit for at least one year and a minimum of two 12-week mentor/mentee relationships in this time. The role would suit empathetic and non-judgemental volunteers. (Ref: NY1721)

Mock Interviews/Guess My Job/Spotlight on Careers Volunteers
West Berkshire

A charity aims to inspire the future workforce and ensure young people are well prepared for the world and achieve their potential. Business professionals volunteer with them across a wide variety of the programmes and initiatives they run, sharing their knowledge about the world of work and how they progressed in their careers.

Volunteers are needed to interview students at school mock interview days, spotlight on careers sessions (whereby you run a workshop informing students about the benefits of working for the company or sector you represent) and guess my job (where students see if they can guess the career the person is doing). Events are mainly in Newbury and the surrounding areas of West Berkshire/ (Ref: NY2543)

Mock Interviews
West Berkshire

A charity aims to inspire the future workforce and ensure young people are well prepared for the world and achieve their potential. Volunteers are needed to interview students at school mock interview days.

At these events, each student participates in a 15-20 minute interview slot, which includes them getting feedback. Volunteers will be fully briefed on the day. The aim is to raise awareness, aspirations and confidence for a student to have an interview, usually for the first time, in a school environment.

Time commitment can be 8:30 to 14:00 or as much time as you can give. This role would suit open minded volunteers who can talk about themselves/their career path and who have had interview experience (having an interview or having interviewed). (Ref: NY2620)

Multimedia Journalist/Journalism Researcher/Trainee
Thatcham

A new community radio service for Thatcham is looking for journalist volunteers. In this role, you will look for stories, events and announcements relevant to Thatcham and record engaging features, bulletins and interviews for broadcast on air and content for the service's web site and social media. Volunteers will build contacts with local businesses, government organisations and charities as well as monitor web sites and the output of other local media organisations.

Volunteers will need to use their handheld devices or borrow one from the station. For hosting shows, you would need to download software to a laptop; volunteers can be trained in using the software and editing. Time commitment is 2 to 8 hours a week. The role would suit computer literate volunteers with good communication skills. (Ref: NY2523)

Nature for Health Volunteer
Newbury

Do you want to explore the benefits of being outdoors? Do you want to learn more about the world of gardening? Do you have gardening skills you could share?

A new project in Newbury runs sessions on Thursdays (9:30-12:30) at which you can help develop a community garden.

Everyone is welcome, whether you are keen gardener, a novice or want to come along to meet others. (Ref: NY2386)

Neighbourhood Watch Co-Ordinators
West Berkshire

Would you be interested in helping make your community safer? Get to know your neighbours and recreate the community spirit by starting a Neighbourhood Watch group in your area.

Schemes can cover anything from 6 houses to a whole road. As a co-ordinator, you will receive information on local crime and suspicious activity, which you can then make your neighbours aware of.

Help reduce crime rates by volunteering for this important role. Co-ordinators will receive free signs and stickers, and details of discounts available to scheme members. (Ref: NY142)

O

Occasional Supporting Volunteer
Newbury

The Newbury branch of a charity that helps people with Parkinson's is looking for occasional volunteer help at the various fundraising events they hold throughout the year. Recent fundraising events have included comedy evenings, coffee mornings, race nights and a collection at the racecourse.

You might be involved in putting up a gazebo or arranging tables and chairs, dressing a table, assisting with coffee and cakes, meeting and greeting, helping with collections or putting up posters. You would be joining a friendly bunch of volunteers and your help would be very much appreciated. Time commitment is 1-30 hours a year. (Ref: NY2368)

Odd Jobs/General Help
West Berkshire

A local charity provides holidays on purpose-built canal boats for disabled, disadvantaged or elderly people and their carers. Could you carry out odd jobs and provide general help?

This role involves getting the boat ready between hires, and checking everything is in order before the next group arrives. It is a good social occasion, with a break for coffee and lardy cake!

Boat "turnarounds" take place on Friday and Saturday mornings throughout the summer. Over the winter, there are maintenance days every Tuesday (mainly mornings, but often going on into early afternoon) and there are always jobs that need doing, from varnishing barge poles to weeding the wharf area. No experience is needed as on the job training is given. Volunteering takes place in Great Bedwyn. (Ref: NY2634)

Office Assistant
Newbury

A local organisation provides model making activities for former and current Armed Forces and emergency services personnel, and promotes model making hobbies as a way of improving mental health. A volunteer is needed to help with administration in their office. Tasks could include writing articles and social media posts, creating Canva artwork, sending e-mails and thank you letters, stacking shelves, tidying resources and general maintenance of the office area. You could also help with collecting donated models, speaking with beneficiaries and collating boxes to be sent out.

Time commitment is one day a week (Wednesdays to Fridays preferred). This could be half a day or a few hours. The role would suit personable volunteers who are computer literate and social media savvy, and have some understanding of mental health challenges. Some interest in miniature hobbies is preferable. (Ref: NY2709)

Online Peer Support
West Berkshire

Volunteer to provide online one-to-one and group support to both individuals who gamble and those affected by someone else's gambling. This role asks you to have personal lived experience of gambling-related harms. This includes being affected by someone else's gambling. You should have been in positive, sustained recovery for at least one year before volunteering for this role.

In this role, you will help navigate and guide contacts through existing services, use motivational interviewing skills to provide a supportive and non-judgmental space, facilitate discussions (via e-mail, chatrooms and forums) and help individuals set goals. Time commitment is a minimum of 1-2 hours per week and this is flexible. The role is remote - you'll need an internet connection, computer and confidential space. (Ref: NY2562)

Out and About Volunteer
West Berkshire

A Berkshire charity runs a service for older people who have become isolated and for whom short-term support can make a real difference.

Volunteers are needed who can give 2-4 hours a week to support people aged 50+ who need some extra help to reconnect with the local community. The aim is to enhance quality of life in cases where there is little or no social contact.

In this role, you would provide short-term intervention, visiting a client and working on an action plan. The role also involves accompanying the client on visits to community activities and reporting back to the project coordinator. Volunteering would normally be between 10am and 5pm and you would need to be available to volunteer for a minimum of six months. (Ref: NY2160)

P

Parent Support Volunteers
West Berkshire

Parents play a key role in creating a secure childhood for their children before they go off to school. But sometimes they need help... your help.

Volunteers with parenting skills are required to undertake a five-week accredited training course. On completion of the training, you will offer friendship and support to other parents, visiting a family at home on a weekly basis (time commitment is up to four hours a week, usually mornings). This exciting and rewarding voluntary activity requires energy, commitment, reliability, creativity and good organisational skills. (Ref: NY2)

Parent Governor
Newbury

A local education provider supports students unable to access mainstream classes. As many of their learners are only with them for a short time, they have had difficulty recruiting a Parent Governor, and are therefore looking for one from the wider community. They are particularly interested in someone who is a parent of school-aged children, primary or secondary.

In this role, you will be responsible for ensuring clarity of strategic direction, hold executive leaders to account for the organisation's educational performance and oversee finances, ensuring money is well spent. Meetings are held 2 or 3 times a term, in the main on Tuesdays, early evening, in Newbury. You will also need to be able to visit education units for 1 to 2 hours once or twice a term. (Ref: NY2561)

Parish Councillor
Speen

Do you live or work in the parish of Speen? Volunteers are required to join the friendly team of parish councillors, helping making a difference to the lives of local people. Parish councillors decide how public funds are spent and help shape the future of the parish. The role is varied – from consulting on planning applications to helping at community events.

Time commitment is 2-3 hours a week, with evening meetings of 1-2 hours once or twice per month (depending on which committees you opt to join) and flexible working via e-mail/telephone. The role would suit people who are passionate about the area - you will need to commit to being active within the community, openly engaging with parishioners about local projects. (Ref: NY2559)

Physical Activity Buddy
West Berkshire

Are you someone that enjoys being active? Are you willing to help encourage those that are less confident about taking up activity?

Physical Activity Buddies are volunteers that will provide support to encourage those new/returning to activity. This will be over the phone and/or in person. If in person, this will be part of a group session.

The role would suit volunteers with good communication skills and an encouraging, supportive demeanour. The group sessions are currently held in Newbury, Thatcham, Inkpen, Hungerford, Theale, Burghfield, Mortimer and Pangbourne. (Ref: NY2151)

Play Support Assistant
Thatcham

A local charity that provides play and friendship for children with disabilities and their families is seeking play support volunteers.

The role involves helping engage the children in fun-filled play opportunities, supporting before, during and after the session. Volunteers will help children within groups or one-to-one. Other duties include cleaning and tidying and setting areas up.

Days and hours are flexible – there are sessions Monday to Sunday. This role would suit reliable, patient and non-judgemental volunteers who are willing to learn skills. You can volunteer for this role from age 14. (Ref: NY2492)

Property Manager
Newbury

The local branch of an organisation which offers a listening service to those in distress is seeking a volunteer Property Manager. In this role, you will be responsible for the maintenance of the Newbury property that the service operates from, responding to occasional calls to bring in plumbers, electricians or building and repair people. Annually, the branch compliance requires updating with health and safety and maintenance checks.

The role includes building management such as carrying out checks and risk assessments, ensuring safe practices and identifying faults. The charity already has an IT team, so that is not part of the role. General building and DIY skills would be a help, otherwise a positive approach and can-do attitude. Someone already working in the building trade would be ideal. Time commitment is on average a couple of hours a week; there are no specific days but you would need to be available to respond to a problem. (Ref: NY2480)

Project Buddy
West Berkshire

A local project helps people who experience loneliness and social isolation and are unable to access digital media. It offers an easy-to-use speaker along with memory sticks pre-loaded with spoken word and music content, supporting people to maintain their interests and feel connected.

The project is looking for volunteer buddies who can commit a few hours a week to contact those using the service by phone or in person. The aim is to hold informal conversations to understand what listeners enjoy and get their feedback on what they want to hear in the future. The role also involves visiting clients to supply and collect memory sticks. The role would suit a caring volunteer with strong interpersonal skills and the majority of the role can be done from home. (Ref: NY2534)

Project Coordinator
West Berkshire

A local project helps people who experience loneliness and social isolation and are unable to access digital media. It offers an easy-to-use speaker along with memory sticks pre-loaded with spoken word and music content, supporting people to maintain their interests and feel connected.

The project is looking for a coordinator who can commit to between half and one day a week, with an additional couple of days each month to approve content and coordinate the delivery of memory sticks. The role involves coordinating sourcing material (for example, from local performers and radio stations), engaging with clients to understand and discuss their interests, visiting clients when required to collect memory sticks, working with care homes to provide content, managing e-mails and attending bi-monthly meetings. The role would suit a volunteer with strong interpersonal skills who can coordinate a small team and has an understanding of social isolation. The majority of the volunteering can be done from home. (Ref: NY2532)

Project development – nature corridor
Newbury

The local group of a national environmental campaigning community pushes for change on causes which matter.

This is an opportunity to get involved in a whole range of activities, from the practical work they are doing (e.g. planting) to more desk-based research to develop their project (e.g. implementing an effective mapping tool). Setting up systems to monitor wildlife and evaluate the project's success is part of this role, and also occasional fundraising with other team members.

Time commitment is variable and flexible and research would be home desk-based, with occasional team meetings. If you could allocate three hours per week to R&D, that would be great, as would be the ability to join in work parties in Newbury (generally weekday mornings). The ideal volunteer will have a love of the outdoors and nature, and it would be helpful if to be familiar with general conservation and environmental issues. (Ref: NY2622)

Publicity volunteer with an interest in disability
West Berkshire

Do you have an interest in disability? The local branch of a charity that provides custom-made equipment and gadgets to increase the independence of those with disabilities is seeking a publicity volunteer.

In this role, you'll engineer local and regional media coverage, create items for posting on social media, identify relevant organisations and professionals to give presentations to and produce a periodic newsletter.

Time commitment is flexible and this role could be fitted in at evenings and weekends for those working. You would volunteer from home, and the role might suit a retired journalist or PR pro wanting to put their editorial and communication skills to use. (Ref: NY2669)

Puppy Support Volunteer
West Berkshire

A national assistance dog charity is looking for Puppy Support Volunteers who can care for a dog in their home as a temporary placement, ranging from day cover to a few weeks.

You will provide care and exercise for the puppy and maintain training and development plans. Volunteers will need to be at home for most of the day and have access to their own transport. Full training and guidance will be provided. Volunteers need to live in a house with a dog friendly, secure, non-shared garden. (Ref: NY2641)

Puppy Training Volunteer

West Berkshire

A national assistance dog charity is searching for amazing volunteers locally to help care for their puppies in training who will grow up to change the life of a disabled person. Puppy Training Volunteers provide caring homes and help raise, socialise and train puppies and young dogs with support from the charity's expert trainers.

This is a long-term volunteer role as the puppy/dog will live with you from 8 weeks old until it is ready to progress into advanced training (14-18 months old). Volunteers will need to be at home for most of the day and have access to a car. You will need access to a dog-friendly, non-shared secure garden. Full training and ongoing guidance will be provided. (Ref: NY2392)

Puppy Raiser

West Berkshire

Become a volunteer Puppy Raiser and provide a puppy with a vital foundation for its future role supporting someone with sight loss.

This is a full-time role where a puppy will live with you for 12-16 months. The role will involve engaging with a puppy training programme, providing care and support, socialising your puppy and introducing them to a variety of environments to increase confidence, teaching the puppy to be comfortable alone, taking the puppy to monthly classes, meeting regular with a volunteer manager and completing short questionnaires.

Volunteers will need access to a car, have time to invest in raising and be physically able to handle large breed dogs (around 25-40kg). (Ref: NY2306)

R

Radio Presenters

Newbury

Are you a novice Nick Grimshaw? Do you have confident communication skills that could challenge Chris Evans? If you have personality, something to say and know what matters to local residents, then this is the volunteer opportunity for you. Get involved with a community radio station that has a strong local focus and is run by volunteers. A diverse range of topics including current affairs, history, eating out and technology are covered, but all with a local relevance.

New ideas are welcomed – and you'll be shown what buttons to press, or another volunteer could press them for you! (Ref: NY1316)

Reading Coach

West Berkshire

Could you help someone with their reading? The local branch of a charity which helps adults learn to read is recruiting coaches. In this role, you would coach an adult who is learning to read for half an hour twice a week, working at the learner's pace through a phonics-based reading programme. Sessions take place at approved local venues or online. Volunteers will be provided with ongoing support and two training courses, covering topics such as how to use the programme resources, learning techniques and establishing an appropriate relationship with the reader.

The role would suit reliable volunteers with a non-judgemental attitude and positive respect for others, with an ability to talk and listen in a patient and encouraging way. (Ref: NY2433)

Reception/Front of House

Baughurst

Volunteers with a ready smile are being recruited to provide a friendly welcome to customers at a project in Baughurst. Monthly Sunday morning sessions are being held whereby local residents can bring along their portable household and personal items to be fixed, helping reduce landfill waste and saving the cost of buying replacements.

In this reception/front of house role, you will be the first person customers see. You will guide the customer through the booking in of their broken item and direct them to the repair zone, keeping them informed of any delays and managing the queue. The role would suit calm and approachable volunteers who are computer literate and enjoy working as a team to deliver a great service. (Ref: NY2475)

Recording Engineer
Newbury

For over 40 years, a local organisation has helped keep local blind and partially sighted people in touch with news from the area. A weekly audio version of the Newbury Weekly News is provided on USB memory sticks.

The organisation is looking for someone to join their team of "Recording Engineers" who could spare a couple of hours once a month on a Thursday evening – this role involves recording the readers onto a laptop and afterwards transferring the recordings to USB memory stick. The role does not entail any particular qualifications or experience – only a basic fluency with a laptop and a degree of common sense. (Ref: NY2157)

Referral Agency Liaison
West Berkshire

A local charity that provides essential support for those in our community who have a short-term food need is seeking a Referral Agency Liaison volunteer. Vouchers are issued by referral agencies, which individuals can then use to obtain emergency food parcels. This role involves developing the charity's relationship with referral agencies, actively extending its network, making new contacts and identifying new opportunities.

You will issue and distribute vouchers to referral agencies, share best practice and link with volunteers to identify key learnings and review data on the vouchers. Time commitment is a minimum of four hours weekly on a weekday during working hours. Volunteering can be from home or the charity's warehouse. The role would suit a volunteer with excellent communication, interpersonal and public speaking skills. (Ref: NY2445)

Rehabilitation Support Volunteer
West Berkshire

Do you have empathy, an interest in criminal justice and rehabilitation and a firm set of personal boundaries? A charity with an excellent reputation for reducing re-offending is looking to recruit individuals who, along with other volunteers, will play a vital role in forming a 'Circle of Support and Accountability' around an individual who has been convicted of sexual harm.

You will receive extensive training and ongoing supervision and support. By actively contributing to the rehabilitation and reintegration process, you'll directly reduce the impact of sexually harmful behaviours on potential victims. Time commitment is 2-3 hours a week. (Ref: NY1400)

Repairers or Fixers
Bathurst

A project in Bathurst is running a monthly Sunday morning session whereby local residents can bring along their portable household and personal items to be fixed, helping reduce landfill waste and saving the cost of buying replacements.

The group is looking for volunteers for the sessions who have the skills to repair items and help people. Skills such as electronic, mechanical, mobile phones, computers, carpentry/woodwork, furniture, sewing, jewellery, clock mending, tool sharpening and fixing bikes are invaluable. Repairers are encouraged to involve the owner in the mending of items as much as possible. The role would suit those who enjoy interacting with people and working as a team to deliver a great service. There is currently a particular need for volunteers who can guide on the use of mobile phones or fix costume jewellery. (Ref: NY2474)

Riding Assistant
Lambourn

An organisation in Lambourn provides horse riding lessons to people with physical and learning disabilities. Volunteers are required to support the sessions, which run daytime weekdays (you can commit to as little or as much as you like, but most volunteers come for one session weekly).

Volunteers help prepare the horses, lead or walk alongside horses during the sessions and assist riders to mount/dismount. No previous experience is necessary – full training and support will be provided. The role would suit personable, fun volunteers. (Ref: NY1940)

S

Sales Assistant
Newbury

A Newbury donation centre raises funds to support vulnerable people in the UK. Could you help them by becoming a Voluntary Sales Assistant?

In this role, you will help display products/clothing on the shop floor, assist customers, promote Gift Aid to donors and assist in the sorting and preparation of stock.

The role would suit someone with excellent customer service skills and a good level of literacy and numeracy skills together with basic IT skills. Previous experience of a customer facing environment would be useful. The hours are flexible. (Ref: NY2374)

School Ambassadors

West Berkshire

A Berkshire charity works in schools helping children develop their reading skills.

They are looking for School Ambassadors to help them engage with more primary schools to deliver their service. The role will involve identifying schools that need support, approaching schools and advising them of the service and presenting the charity's work to local headteachers and school governors.

Time commitment is two hours a month. The role would suit enthusiastic volunteers who are connected with the local community. Experience of working in schools or an active involvement with schools would be useful. (Ref: NY2337)

School Governor

Brightwalton

A primary school northwest of Newbury is looking to recruit new governors to its board. The board both supports and challenges the headteacher in the strategic direction of the popular village school. This is an opportunity to support both the children's education and the staff. The role involves both administrative tasks and occasional school visits.

There are approximately two meetings each half term, which are a hybrid of face-to-face and Zoom. The meetings are generally early evening, although one committee meets early morning. This is an opportunity to bring to the board your skills (perhaps financial, educational or managerial) but above all your enthusiasm for supporting the educational opportunities of the next generation. (Ref: NY2407)

School Governors

West Berkshire

Governors are ordinary people with an interest in the education of children and young people. Governors are required for schools across West Berkshire.

As a governor, you would work alongside a headteacher and other governors in setting the strategic direction of a school. The skills and experiences required vary from school to school; you may have experience in data analysis, human resources or finance, or simply have an interest in schooling. (Ref: NY974)

School Holiday Play Volunteers

Thatcham

A local charity that provides play and friendship for children with disabilities and their families is seeking volunteers to help at their sessions over the school holidays.

You will support children with special needs on a 1:1 basis or as a group, also helping to set up and clear away activities.

Training will be provided, and you can volunteer from age 14 upwards. Previous experience of working with children is preferable but not essential, and help is needed for sessions on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays (10:00-3:00).

The play sessions promote social and emotional wellbeing for the children who attend, and allow families to feel supported. (Ref: NY2329)

Schools Service Volunteer

West Berkshire

A national charity that protects children is seeking School Service Volunteers locally. By becoming a volunteer, you will play a vital role in protecting a generation of children, helping them understand abuse and giving them the confidence to speak out if they need help.

Volunteers will visit local primary schools twice a month to deliver age-appropriate workshops. You'll get lots of initial training and support will be available when you start delivering.

The role would suit empathetic and sensitive volunteers with good communication skills, who are passionate about helping children. (Ref: NY2376)

Scout Volunteers

Purley, Pangbourne

Your help is needed to create fun, challenge and adventure for young people in Purley and Pangbourne. Volunteers are needed to help with the running of beaver, cub, scout and explorer groups. Groups meet weekly in term-time and activities can include cooking, camping, community projects, games, badges and even Duke of Edinburgh Award.

Your role will be to support and encourage the young people to take part in the activities and try their best. Training and support will be provided, and you can volunteer for the weekly session that is most convenient for you. (Ref: NY1755)

Secretary (taking minutes and organising)

West Berkshire

A forum made up of representatives from the GP practice Patient Participation Groups and other health bodies meets four or five times a year (usually online) so they can all learn from each other. The group is seeking a volunteer secretary. The role involves taking meeting minutes (meetings are recorded), helping set agendas, organising meetings such as sending out dates and agendas, and other administrative tasks.

Time commitment is expected to be 6-8 hours every few months. The role would suit an organised volunteer with good notetaking and summarising skills, who is able to write clear English and is proficient in Microsoft Word. Meetings are currently held at 5:30pm on Thursdays (timings may change in future and ideally they are looking for someone who could manage any time, afternoon or evening). (Ref: NY2579)

Session Volunteers

Newbury

If you are calm, friendly, practical and a good team player, then you could get involved with a Newbury based project that meets on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Sundays to support the homeless.

The project offers friendly support to those in need, as well as a hot meal, groceries, toiletries, bedding and clothes.

Volunteers are needed to help with the preparation and serving of meals, washing up and the issuing of supplies. Volunteers should be open-minded, empathetic, calm and practical.

Volunteers commit to at least one session a month although many volunteers do more. (Ref: NY29)

Shop Assistants

Hampstead Norreys

Community shops provide a vital service to rural neighbourhoods, as well as selling essential goods.

If you are young or not so young, local or live further afield, a village to the North of Newbury would welcome your help in their popular shop. You could get involved with serving customers, checking stock and helping when new stock arrives. Meet new people, give to the community and pick up new skills. (Ref: NY1535)

Short term dog care

West Berkshire

A charity that trains assistance dogs for deaf people is looking for volunteers to help with respite care for their young dogs whilst their main carer is on holiday or in the case of an emergency.

You will need to have a home with access to a secure garden and be committed for looking after a dog for at least 4-5 days a month at a time (the role is not suitable for full-time workers). Volunteers should be drivers with 24 hour access to a vehicle and have access to a computer with video calling. Full support will be provided. (Ref: NY2659)

Sighted Guides

West Berkshire

Sight loss can take away independence and confidence. Could you become a guide to help someone with visual impairment learn and practice a route? A goal is set to make sure you and the individual know what they want to achieve – this could be learning a route to the bus stop or train station, navigating the way to a local café or gym, or walking to work or college. In this role, you will help someone gain confidence to go out independently.

The role would suit friendly volunteers with patience and empathy. Volunteers do not need experience of sight loss as full training is given so you become a Level 1 Sighted Guide. Time commitment varies but is usually 2-3 hours per fortnight. (Ref: NY2418)

Social Activities Assistant

West Berkshire

A local charity that supports people who are blind or visually impaired runs a programme of social activities for its clients.

These activities include museum visits, theatre trips, walks, boat trips and lunches. They are looking for volunteers to attend, support and guide participants and to join in the fun.

Time commitment varies and is very flexible – as a volunteer, you would be sent the activities calendar each month and would then decide what you wanted to support with. The role would suit friendly and patient volunteers who enjoy being part of a team, and training will be given. (Ref: NY2225)

Social and Therapeutic Gardening Group Volunteer
Englefield

A local charity with a focus on horticultural therapy is looking for volunteers to help with the running of a social group for seniors over 65. The group focuses on activities to enhance wellbeing in a natural garden environment, with attendees who face a range of issues including limited mobility, sensory impairment, cognitive issues and feelings of social isolation.

As a volunteer, you'll ensure attendees have the support they need and encourage social interaction. Activities range from sitting down tasks such as potting on and weeding/planting in the raised beds, to more active jobs such as hoeing for those without mobility issues. An interest in older folk, nature and gardening is all that is required. Sessions take place in Englefield between 10am and 12pm on Thursdays. (Ref: NY2677)

Speaker
West Berkshire

A charity which trains dogs to assist people with visual impairment is seeking a volunteer speaker to give talks and presentations about their work.

Talks will be delivered to local organisations, but some may require more travel. The role would suit an enthusiastic volunteer who is a natural speaker with an ability to tailor a presentation to suit the audience. (Ref: NY1551)

Speaker
West Berkshire

A cancer charity that supports children, young people and their families is seeking volunteer speakers to help promote their work.

This role involves giving talks and presentations about the charity, proactively approaching organisations to organise talks and collecting cheques from groups.

Time commitment is flexible to fit around you, but you will need to be able to commit to some evenings and weekends. The role would suit confident and articulate volunteers who enjoy meeting people. (Ref: NY2058)

Speaker
West Berkshire

Could you deliver inspiring talks and workshops about the importance of clean water, decent toilets and good hygiene to transform people's lives for good? An organisation that works internationally and is determined to make these available to all is recruiting volunteer speakers locally.

In this role, you will talk about important work of the organisation, inspiring people to take action. Volunteers will need availability to deliver a minimum of four talks a year, to organisations such as schools, businesses and groups. The role would suit those with a passion for public speaking who are competent using PowerPoint. Volunteers should also have access to their own transport and flexibility to visit different locations. (Ref: NY2370)

Speaker
West Berkshire

A national assistance dog charity is looking for volunteer speakers. This role involves giving talks to a variety of groups, schools and organisations within the local area, raising awareness of the charity and promoting their fundraising events.

Times can vary, and you can choose which talks you attend (talks mainly take place during the week, with some evenings). The role would suit a volunteer with a polite, confident and personable manner with experience of PowerPoint and of public speaking or delivering presentations. (Ref: NY2639)

Special Need Support Volunteer
Hamstead Marshall

A farm project in Hamstead Marshall supports adults with learning disabilities and difficulties. The farm grows fruit and veg, flowers and herbs, and provides an opportunity for clients to engage in purposeful activity while connecting with nature and interacting with peers and the community.

Volunteers are needed to help at the sessions. Volunteers will work alongside the gardener to put together tasks for the day and help ensure they achieve their goals. The role would suit volunteers who enjoy gardening and being outside and are passionate about supporting those with special needs. The role is available on Mondays and Thursdays (10:00-3:00). (Ref: NY2385)

Sports Assistant
West Berkshire

A local charity that supports people who are blind or visually impaired runs a programme of sports activities for its clients. Volunteers are required to help with these activities. You can either focus on the sport that interests you or you may wish to volunteer across several activities. The charity runs both adults' and children's activities.

Activities on offer include tandem cycling, rock climbing, golf, running, dragon boating, swimming, tennis and more.

Time commitment varies and is very flexible – as a volunteer, you would sent an activities calendar each month and then decide what you wanted to support with. The role would suit friendly and patient volunteers who enjoy being part of a team, and training will be given. (Ref: NY2226)

Stay and Play Helper
Newbury

The local branch of a church charity is seeking volunteers to help at a play session in Newbury, which runs on Wednesday mornings between 9:15am and 12 noon during term time. The role is to help create a safe and engaging environment for children aged 0-4 years old and their parents/carers.

Tasks include setting up and packing away toys, talking to parents, engaging with the babies and children, making hot drinks, clearing up after snack and being a friendly face. The role would suit someone with an interest in the organisation's work, good listening and communication skills and a good sense of humour. (Ref: NY2723)

Steward
Newbury

A local arts centre, which shows some of the best music, comedy, art and family entertainment on tour in the UK, requires volunteer stewards.

As a steward, you would show people to their seats, sell ice creams, escort people to safety in the event of an emergency and... watch the performances! Ideal for a numerate volunteer with good common sense and an interest in entertainment. (Ref: NY802)

Stock Processor
Newbury

A Newbury charity shop is looking for volunteer stock processors to join their team. In this role, you will volunteer in the dedicated processing area, sorting through donated items and making them ready to go on the shop floor for sale.

Jobs that volunteers can get involved in include making customers feel welcome; rotating stock, sorting, steaming and tagging donations; serving at the till; housekeeping and tidying window displays. Time commitment is flexible, but a minimum of two hours a week works well. (Ref: NY2489)

Student Volunteer (18+)
West Berkshire

A charity which aims to bring chemotherapy treatment closer to the homes of cancer patients is recruiting student volunteers (18+). You could be hosting your own fundraiser, support the charity at a local event, attend community events on the charity's behalf or publicise the charity through your university network.

The role would suit reliable volunteers with an energetic and proactive personality, a willingness to get involved and talk about the charity's work and good communication skills. (Ref: NY2586)

Support Volunteers
Thatcham

A listening service based in Newbury provides confidential emotional support to individuals experiencing feelings of distress or despair, including those that may lead to suicide. Support Volunteers play a vital role behind the schemes to ensure the smooth running of the branch.

This role may include organising and assisting at events, community outreach and promotion, handling administrative tasks, managing schedules and helping with practical tasks. The role would suit empathetic and reliable volunteers. (Ref: NY2638)

Support young people to gain skills for life

West Berkshire

Do you have a sense of adventure and want to support young people in your community? Scout groups across West Berkshire are looking for help with running their exciting youth programmes – Squirrels (4-6 years), Beavers (6-8 years), Cubs (8-10 years), Scouts (10-14 years) and Explorers (14-18 years).

This volunteering opportunity involves helping to plan and run the exciting programme of activities for the children, as well as go on fun outings. From abseiling to zorbing, camping to coding, they do it all! The role would suit volunteers who enjoy being part of a team and learning new skills. (Ref: NY2722)

T

Tactile Picture Painter for books for blind children

Kingsclere

If you are creative and have an eye for detail, you may be interested in a volunteer role with a charity based in Kingsclere that creates and publishes books for people who are blind or partially sighted.

The charity is looking for volunteers for their painting studio. In this role, you will paint the simple, raised, tactile pictures that go inside children's picture books.

Time commitment is 3+ hours per week (the role is available Monday to Friday daytime). The role would suit someone who enjoys painting. (Ref: NY2266)

Telephone Befriender

West Berkshire

A local charity that supports people who have a visual impairment or are blind runs a telephone befriending service. The aim is to reduce the isolation that individuals may be experiencing.

As a telephone befriender, you would make weekly calls to a person with sight loss. The aim of the call is to provide a friendly chat, and you will ask the individual about their week. Most calls last around 30 minutes. After the call, you complete a short online form to record that you spoke and to let the charity know if anything needs to be followed up.

The role would suit good listeners with a cheerful disposition. (Ref: NY2142)

Telephone Buddy

West Berkshire

Bring your listening skills to support people living with cancer to feel less isolated and lonely. A leading cancer charity is recruiting volunteer telephone buddies.

The role involves speaking to 1-3 people living with cancer every week for up to twelve calls, adopting a non-judgemental and supportive approach, completing post-call reports, joining group catch-up calls every 4-6 weeks and signposting to additional support if required.

Days/times are flexible but you would usually commit 1-2 hours a month. The role would suit patient and reliable volunteers with good empathy and communication skills. (Ref: NY2473)

Till Assistants

Newbury

A Newbury charity shop dedicated to fighting poverty and inequality is seeking till assistants.

Volunteers will receive training and support so that you can help the shop sell lots of goodies each week, whilst providing customers and donors with amazing service.

Time commitment is 4-8 hours a week, and the role would suit volunteers who enjoy being part of a team, meeting new people and making a difference. (Ref: NY2287)

Therapist Volunteers

West Berkshire

Are you a qualified therapist in acupuncture, reflexology, massage, mindfulness, reiki or yoga? A charity dedicated to empowering people with cancer by providing complementary therapies is recruiting compassionate volunteer therapists. The charity can provide materials and help towards reasonable travel costs.

Volunteers will need to be empathetic and have excellent communication skills. You will need to provide certificates of qualifications and insurance and be a member of a governing body if relevant. Volunteers receive induction and mandatory training. Therapies are offered Monday-Thursday daytime in Stockcross – most volunteers provide three hours on a weekly or twice weekly basis. Yoga and mindfulness therapists usually run a 6-8 week course, virtually or in person, daytime or evening a few times each year. (Ref: NY2563)

Tool Ambassador
West Berkshire

A Christian charity collects unwanted tools, refurbishes them and then sorts them into trade kits to send across the world for livelihood creation.

Tool Ambassadors are the volunteers that members of the public contact to donate tools. The role involves collecting donated tools, loading them into boxes and storing them before arranging for them to be picked up by a van. Members of the public will contact you by e-mail or phone day or evening, but when you collect is up to you.

The role would suit friendly volunteers are happy to drive round to make collections. (Ref: NY2322)

Toy Library Volunteer
Mortimer

A service in Burghfield and Mortimer gives families the opportunity to borrow a wide range of children's toys and puzzles at a very low cost.

Volunteers are required to welcome families and explain how the service works. You would facilitate loans, completing the necessary paperwork, collecting money and issuing the toys. When toys are returned, they are checked and the paperwork is amended. At the start of the session, toys are taken out of the cupboard to display to families and returned at the end.

This is a fun role helping children choose toys and chatting to families. Time commitment is two hours per month on a Tuesday or Saturday (between 9:30 and 11:30). (Ref: NY2107)

Trainer
West Berkshire

Do you have a background in education, teaching or a related field? Join the team at a Berkshire charity which supports children with learning to read. Through the charity's core work in primary schools, they have realised that when students haven't developed strong literacy skills, they struggle with keeping up with reading in secondary. The charity has expanded its services but needs volunteers to help with the workshops.

You will play a crucial role in equipping students and parents with the tools and strategies to support students in improving their reading. You will work alongside a volunteer trainer and a charity trustee. The workshops currently happen about once every other month for two hours and are generally during school hours, term time only. The role would suit a volunteer with strong communication skills who is experienced in the teaching of reading. (Ref: NY2554)

Treasurer
Newbury

A Newbury charity owns and manages 16 modern flats that are let to families who cannot afford to buy or rent on the open market. The charity is seeking a volunteer treasurer.

They are looking for someone who is willing to accept responsibility and enjoys being part of a small team. You will need accountancy skills to draw up and monitor the annual budget, provide quarterly management accounts from QuickBooks, draft the year-end accounts and liaise with the Independent Examiner and banks and insurance brokers.

Board meetings take place every six weeks (Thursday evenings) where you would present the accounts. There are also quarter days focusing on finance. In the autumn, you would develop budget proposals for the coming year and early the next year to extend the year-end management accounts into draft statutory accounts. (Ref: NY2379)

Treasurer
Newbury

The local branch of a charity which supports expectant and new parents is seeking a treasurer. In this role, you will look after the charity's money following guidance and policies, help volunteers budget for groups and activities, keep a record of income and spending, process volunteer expenses, keep track of grant spending, and report quarterly using a simple online system.

This is a flexible role that can be done from home to suit you, and you can volunteer with as little as two hours a month. The role would suit an organised volunteer who is confident with numbers and who is passionate about supporting parents. (Ref: NY2654)

Treasurer
Newbury

A Newbury pre-school is looking for a new treasurer. As a volunteer, you'll become part of a charity committee striving to make sure the setting is an enjoyable and memorable one for the young children attending.

The role would suit someone with good book-keeping skills and a keen eye for detail. A person with accountancy qualifications would be preferable but not essential. It is estimated that 1-2 hours a week would be sufficient in order to maintain regular financial control of the accounts. There are 3-4 committee meetings each year at which attendance would be required (typically 90 minutes, held in the evening). You may also occasionally visit the bank to deposit cash and cheques. Financial control of the accounts can be achieved from home. (Ref: NY2663)

Treasurer
Bishop's Green

The organisation that runs the village hall in Bishop's Green is looking for a volunteer treasurer to take over the role from January 2026. In this role, you will ensure that the organisation spends correctly and is able to meet its financial obligations.

You will maintain the accounts, oversee invoices and receipts, arrange payments and prepare the annual accounts. The role takes around eight hours a month and is flexible apart from monthly meetings which are held in the evening, usually on a Tuesday. Most of the volunteering will be done from home (you will need your own computer and printer), and the role requires a volunteer with financial, IT and report writing skills, who can use spreadsheets and Microsoft Money. (Ref: NY2346)

Treasurer
Thatcham

A volunteer treasurer is required to oversee the financial affairs of two churches in Thatcham. In this role, you will oversee the production of financial reports, returns, accounts, financial controls and audits, ensuring proper records are kept. You will monitor and report on the financial health of the churches at regular intervals to the Parochial Church Council (six meetings a year, usually on a Wednesday evening).

Time commitment once familiar is expected to be a couple of hours a week. The role would suit a clear communicator and good team player with a can do attitude and a systematic approach to finance and organisation. (Ref: NY2511)

Trustee
Newbury

A Newbury charity runs creative activities such as drama, dance and filmmaking for young people and adults with learning disabilities. The charity is looking for a trustee who can help them fulfil their mission and objectives. Trustee meetings take place every three months with a continuous commitment from all members to promote events and raise awareness of the charity's work.

A background in advertising, law, communication, administration, funding, volunteer recruitment or HR would be beneficial but not essential. What is required is a good sense of humour and a commitment to continued development. (Ref: NY1736)

Trustee
Thatcham

Do you have an interest in historical buildings and the local community? Could you assist in the promotion and preservation of a local building that is hired out to local leisure and education groups?

A new trustee is needed for an organisation that looks after this building, which has a 700 year history. You will play an important role in promoting and supporting the organisation's work. The time commitment is approximately five meetings a year, plus ad hoc business between meetings. (Ref: NY2004)

Trustee
Newbury

Be instrumental in shaping the future of a mental health charity by becoming a volunteer trustee. You will ensure effective governance, support their mission and help them extend their reach and impact. You'll also champion service user empowerment and work collaboratively with their members' management committee.

Trustees need to actively participate in trustee meetings, typically every six weeks, lasting 1-3 hours (usually held in the evenings via Google Meet). Beyond this, the role can absorb as much time as you are able to commit. The role would suit a volunteer with excellent communication skills. Experience in one or more of the areas of fundraising, marketing, legal, financial, IT and HR would be desirable, but not essential. An understanding of the challenges faced by those with mental health issues is an advantage. (Ref: NY2609)

Trustee

West Berkshire/south of England

A charity which provides advocacy and supports the most disadvantaged and marginalised people in society is seeking trustees. The charity works primarily, but not solely in counties across the south of England, and covers West Berkshire.

In this role, you will help the charity develop its strategic direction and sustain innovative services to support vulnerable people in the community. Time commitment averages one day a month; meeting locations are flexible, and either face-to-face or virtual.

They are looking for volunteers who have some of the following - being a member of, or working in diverse or minority communities; having experience of using advocacy or support services; an interest in vulnerable people; an understanding of the voluntary sector; integrity and strategic direction; governance, finance or entrepreneurial experience; good communication and teamwork skills. (Ref: NY2627)

Trustee

West Berkshire

Are you an experienced HR professional with a commitment to social impact? A West Berkshire charity which provides free mental health support to young people is seeking a dedicated and skilled individual to join them as a trustee, bringing their expertise in Human Resources and helping shape future charitable endeavours.

The role involves providing strategic insight to enhance organisational structure and policies, overseeing development of new HR policies, ensuring compliance with employment law and good practice, collaborating with other trustees to shape HR policies and contributing to fostering an inclusive and supportive organisational culture. Trustees hold a bi-monthly meeting in the evening. Additional hours vary as appropriate. The role would suit a good communicator with proven HR expertise. (Ref: NY2527)

Newbury

Trustees are required for a small and busy Newbury charity which provides low-cost accommodation to those in need.

The ideal candidates will bring to the board of trustees one or more of the following – management experience in a not for profit or commercial environment, a track record of business and financial acumen or a social work background. The charity is looking for someone who is committed to the work of the charity and understands the principles of good governance.

There are four trustee meetings per year; trustee meetings are usually held on a Monday at 1pm and last a maximum of two hours. (Ref: NY1927)

Trustee

Newbury

A small charity promotes, maintains and advances education and appreciation of the arts in West Berkshire and the surrounding area. It runs art-based workshops, an art hub café and events, and also aims to improve people's wellbeing and inclusion through these.

The charity is looking for new trustees to help advance its aims. They are looking for help in many areas, including PR, fundraising, health and safety, general HR and administration. The role would suit enthusiastic team players who are friendly and approachable, ideally with an appreciation of the visual arts.

There are five trustee meetings a year (normally on a Tuesday between 4:00 and 6:00), plus additional time for specific roles, according to availability. (Ref: NY2406)

Trustee

West Berkshire

A charity which acts as a support group for patients diagnosed with a life-long, potentially fatal haematological condition is looking to expand its trustee board.

They would particularly like to hear from forward-thinking individuals with experience in HR or finance. Some experience of charities/governance would be a bonus. Time commitment is 1-2 hours per quarter for board meetings and around 1-2 hours per month for incidental tasks/meetings. There is also potential for a day/night once per year for conference attendance. Understanding life through the eyes of individuals living with a lifelong condition would be an advantage. The charity is national, although some staff are based in West Berkshire. Meetings are held online, or occasionally face to face at a location agreed by all. (Ref: NY2580)

Trustee
West Berkshire

A local charity which helps refugees and asylum seekers rebuild their lives through teaching, social activities, support and advice is seeking volunteers to join its team of trustees. Trustees have ultimate responsibility for ensuring the charity is well-run.

They are looking for trustees who are enthusiastic about the charity's work and values. The charity believes a range of both professional and life experience can contribute to increasing its capacity and flexibility. The role would suit empathetic volunteers with good listening skills. Expertise in areas such as law, education, finance, human resources, management or other relevant fields would be desirable, as well as an understanding of public service providers and charity regulations and practices. Time commitment is 4-6 hours a week. (Ref: NY2628)

Trustee
Newbury

A Newbury-based charity operates a drop-in centre five days a week, providing hot nutritious meals, food packages and support to people who are homeless, lonely, vulnerable or financially struggling. As a trustee you will be part of a team overseeing policies, strategies and operations, helping them continue their important work.

It is expected that you would attend the majority of monthly meetings and the AGM. Trustee meetings last no longer than two hours (usually on a Monday evening). They would anticipate trustees will take on ad-hoc activities to support the charity's aims. The role would suit someone with good communication, teamwork, problem solving and decision-making skills, who can interpret and evaluate management information and other data/evidence. You will have a willingness to be proactive in leveraging your own expertise. (Ref: NY2685)

Trustee/Committee Member
Thatcham

Would you like to play an essential part in the running of organisation that provides activities to children and young people in Thatcham?

As a trustee, you will help ensure that the organisation runs to the standards required of a charity, maintains financial stability, and evaluates both current and prospective projects.

They are looking for those with expertise in event management, policy and risk assessment writing, fundraising and grant applications, youth work knowledge or previous charity work experience. Trustees attend evening meetings during the week every 2-3 months. (Ref: NY1951)

Trustee Director
Newbury

A local charity provides housing for people from the Newbury area who for financial, or other, reasons are not able to find accommodation. They are looking to recruit Trustee Directors; they have particular interest in recruiting someone to head up their Residents' Support Services, although those interested in a general vacancy are welcome to apply.

The Support Services role will involve reporting on residents' support services, developing a support services policy, liaising with the proctors, reviewing the residents' handbook, developing residents' policies and chairing the residents' sub-committee.

The role would take 2-4 hours a week, in addition to four board meetings a year, held in the evenings. Applicants should be local to Newbury. (Ref: NY2629)

Trustee with HR background
Newbury

Play a crucial role in ensuring that a Newbury-based mental health charity operates with best practices in people management by becoming a volunteer trustee with a Human Resources background. You will bring your HR expertise to support the governance of the charity, advising on employment law, HR strategy, volunteer management, staff development, risk management and organisational culture.

Trustees need to actively participate in trustee meetings, typically every six weeks, lasting 1-3 hours (usually held in the evenings via Google Meet). Beyond this, the role can absorb as much time as you are able to commit. The role would suit a volunteer with excellent communication skills. An understanding of the challenges faced by those with mental health issues is an advantage. (Ref: NY2610)

Trustees

Wash Common

A community centre based in South Newbury that provides a vital meeting place for many groups is seeking new trustees.

The role of the trustees is to see the management of the organisation is undertaken appropriately.

The role does not involve a heavy time commitment. Trustees attend some of the committee meetings (held on a Tuesday evening every six weeks) and spend some time outside of these meetings reading documents and financial reports. (Ref: NY2239)

Trustees

Berkshire

A Berkshire charity with over fifty years' experience in community development work inspires action at a community level that improves people's quality of life. The charity works across the county, with a particular focus on rural communities.

As a trustee, your skills and experience will be used to make a lasting difference in our local communities. They are particularly keen to hear from people with a background in human resources, experience of working on a parish/town council or someone who is a great communicator and loves networking. You would need to demonstrate sound and independent judgement and the confidence to critically challenge and question ideas. There are four board meetings (two online and two in person) per year plus ad hoc meetings and an away day. Time would also be needed for meeting preparation and there may be projects where you can share your expertise, usually to support the CEO. (Ref: NY2551)

Trustees and Directors

Greenham

A charity that runs a visitor centre dedicated to Greenham's history is seeking new trustees and directors to strengthen their existing team. They encourage applicants with all experiences, but are particularly looking for volunteers who could aid engagement with younger audiences, fundraising, museum operations and volunteers/HR.

The role requires attendance at one evening meeting a month (6:30-8:00pm) and some hours in between meetings to act on decisions. As the charity continues to grow, it is important that directors and trustees are adaptable and able to inspire other volunteers. The role would suit enthusiastic volunteers who can bring ideas, energy and action to the role. (Ref: NY2299)

U

Unit Leaders and Assistant Leaders

Newbury

Get creative, have fun and be an inspiring role model to girls and young women in the Newbury area. As unit leader or assistant leader, you'll join a team of volunteers to run the unit, plan meetings and deliver awesome activities.

The role involves planning and delivering activities, safeguarding, maintaining standards for your unit, completing training and following policies, communicating with parents and carers, keeping records and sharing issues with local commissioners.

The role would suit flexible volunteers with good teamwork skills, attention to detail and personal and digital communication skills. Leaders usually spend two to five hours a week outside of unit time on the role. Training will be provided. (Ref: NY2394)

Volunteer - Visitor
Reception
Basildon

A local National Trust property is looking for volunteers who can create a positive first impression with a warm welcome, helping all visitors get all they need from their visit. In this role, you'll share information, answer questions, advise visitors on the best routes around the property, and give personalised goodbyes and heartfelt thank yous.

Time commitment is preferably fortnightly. Volunteers are needed every day, 9.45-1:30 and 1:30-4:00 (until 5:00 in summer), and the role would suit cheerful volunteers who enjoy meeting new people and being part of a team. (Ref: NY2676)

Vegan Advocate
West Berkshire

A national organisation which promotes veganism organises various outreach activities to influence change in every level of society.

By becoming a volunteer advocate, you can help them ensure their campaign messages are spread far and wide. This role could involve communicating with people in the local community and sharing information on veganism, staffing stalls or giving talks at events, writing to the newspaper or lobbying an MP.

The role would suit good communicators and team players, with experience of campaigning. Advocates are asked to engage in a minimum of four to six actions per year. (Ref: NY2645)

Vegan Community Organiser
West Berkshire

Do you want to take part in vegan volunteering locally? A national organisation that aims to make veganism mainstream has an ever-growing community network of vegans, who volunteer to promote veganism. Each month, you will be sent a collection of tasks to choose from; these could include town centre stalls, writing to a councillor or MP, sharing campaigns on social media or contacting local businesses. You would be the point of contact for advocates in your area, sharing these tasks and coordinating activities.

You should be able to commit around two days a month to carry out actions, and this is usually spread out across the month. The role would suit a volunteer with great organisational skills and experience of coordinating people. (Ref: NY2644)

Venue Volunteer
Newbury

A venue in Newbury that is open to the public has an exciting opportunity for volunteers to interact with visitors, help staff and be part of a team. You will help visitors feel welcome and make their visit run as smoothly as possible.

You may interact with visitors and tell them about the venue's history, support the café, ensure that safety and access requirements for visitors are met or assist at events. Volunteers should have good communication skills with both adults and children and thrive in a team environment but also be able to carry out tasks alone. The majority of volunteering will be at weekends, bank holidays and occasional evenings. (Ref: NY2660)

Volunteer Ambassadors
West Berkshire

A Berkshire charity works in schools helping children develop their reading skills.

They are looking for Volunteer Ambassadors to raise awareness and encourage others to become volunteers in schools. The role involves leafleting the local area, identifying areas for displaying leaflets, presenting and talking about volunteering in schools, attending volunteer recruitment events and identifying local magazines to promote through.

Time commitment is two hours a month. The role would suit enthusiastic volunteers who are connected with the local community. (Ref: NY2336)

Volunteer Reader
West Berkshire

Can you spare an hour or two a week to listen to children read in a primary school? A national reading charity is looking for volunteers who can help transform a child's reading ability. You will be matched to the closest local school needing help, and your support could have a great impact on a child's life, enabling them to explore new worlds of knowledge, inspiration, creativity and fun.

Volunteers will need a good command of spoken and written English. (Ref: NY2108)

Volunteer to help with fundraising events
Thatcham

A Thatcham based club gives back to the community by raising funds at three major events each year (a fun day, duck race and Santa fun run). These events allow them to support both local charities and international campaigns.

W

Walking companion for a female stroke survivor who is also visually impaired
Newbury

A Berkshire charity supports adults with a physical disability to become more active and independent. A female volunteer is needed to become a companion for one of their female members who is visually impaired and has experienced a stroke. She has done remarkably well with her rehabilitation but her vision causes her to be unsteady – having a volunteer who can link arms with her and go for a walk will help her greatly. Sadly she is longer able to do crafts but would love to have craft in common when talking.

This is a flexible role – one walk a week would be fantastic. The role would suit someone who enjoys chatting with a friend. The member lives in Newbury. (Ref: NY2719)

Walking companion to help rehabilitation
Newbury

A charity which supports adults with a physical disability to become more active and independent is looking for a volunteer to become a walking companion for one of their female members. This lady is doing brilliantly with her rehabilitation since her stroke. She walks with a stick and having a regular walk will increase her confidence, ability and distance, as well as social interaction.

This is a flexible role; one walk a week would be fantastic. The member lives in Newbury, so you could do walks in town or along the canal and also enjoy a coffee. The role would suit someone who enjoys chatting with a friend and having a giggle. (Ref: NY2673)

Walk Leaders
West Berkshire

Improve your health and wellbeing whilst sharing some of West Berkshire's beautiful country and town locations with others. There is a timetable of walks that take place across the district and of varying length and pace.

As a volunteer walk leader, you could get involved in scheduled walks, or perhaps plan your own. By giving just a little time, you could help yourself and others get active and healthy. (Ref: NY1451)

Warehouse Volunteer
Newbury

A local organisation provides model making activities for former and current Armed Forces and emergency services personnel. It also promotes model making hobbies as a way of improving wellbeing and mental health.

They have a warehouse and storage container for their stock of donated model kits (tanks, aircraft, ships, submarines, artillery, figures, cars and trucks and tools).

A volunteer is needed to restock the shelves which are 6ft high with cleaned complete model kits, moving models from the warehouse and storage container and back. You could also be providing administrative support to the organisation where needed and other general duties. Time commitment is flexible, on a weekday, daytime. (Ref: NY2245)

Youth Club Leaders
Tilehurst

An organisation in Tilehurst provides a safe and secure environment for young people to enjoy themselves, make new friends and develop their social skills. Volunteers get involved with activities such as arts and crafts, cooking, pool, table tennis, team games, discos, theme nights and karaoke. The role would suit volunteers who enjoy engaging with young people and being part of a team.

The sessions run on Friday evenings term-time only, with volunteers required between 6.45 and 9.45pm; commitment can be weekly or fortnightly. Support and training will be provided. (Ref: NY2137)

Youth Club Sessional Volunteer
Lambourn

Can you sit down and natter with a group of children about whatever interests them? Can you offer a skill they might like to learn? Perhaps you are sporty, creative or like games...

A project in Lambourn needs volunteers for their Youth Club on Mondays from 6:30 to 8:00pm. They have upwards of 50 young people attending, aged 9-14. Volunteers are needed to help set up and close the sessions, welcome the young people, run the tuckshop, supervise the various activities (such as pool, table football, games, crafts, sports and projects) or assist with planning, fundraising and governance.

The Youth Club would like a regular commitment of a minimum of two sessions a month so that relationships and continuity can be formed. (Ref: NY2393)

Youth Club Volunteer
Thatcham

A youth club for 11-14+ year olds runs on Monday evenings in Thatcham, and volunteers are needed to help support a variety of activities.

Could you help run sporting activities such as basketball or football? Perhaps you have a special interest in arts, crafts or music that you could share. Or maybe you could help out by running the tuck shop or helping out with whatever is necessary.

Ideal for volunteers with a passion and enthusiasm for supporting young people. (Ref: NY1952)

Youth Club Volunteer
Thatcham

A youth club for 7-11 year olds runs on Friday evenings in Thatcham, and volunteers are needed to help support a variety of activities.

Could you help run sporting activities such as basketball or football? Perhaps you have a special interest in arts, crafts or music that you could share. Or maybe you could help out by running the tuck shop or provide general support across activities. Ideal for volunteers with a passion and enthusiasm for supporting young people. (Ref: NY1555)

Youth Club Volunteers
Hungerford

Help is needed at activities sessions for young people in the Hungerford area. Volunteers are being recruited to assist with the youth clubs on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, helping to create new opportunities for young people such as cooking, sports, crafts and music. It may be you have an interest in one of these areas but there is plenty else going on that you could help with, such as running the tuck shop.

Volunteers should be friendly, have a warm smile, be approachable to all and be good at communicating with young people. A commitment of one session a week during term time would be welcomed, but they are also interested in hearing from volunteers who can commit some time even if it is not every week. Training will be provided. (Ref: NY2244)

Youth Leader
Thatcham

Do you enjoy supporting young people and want to make a difference in your community? A first aid charity is looking for volunteer youth leaders, who will play a vital role in delivering an engaging programme for young people aged 10-18.

In this role you'll lead and support weekly sessions in a fun and inclusive environment, collaborate with other volunteers to plan the programme and help empower the next generation with essential life skills, including first aid, leadership and teamwork.

The weekly sessions are held on Thursday evenings during term times, and the role would suit a good communicator and team worker with a passion for helping young people grow and a willingness to complete training relevant to youth work and first aid. (Ref: NY2678)

Youth Worker Volunteer
Calcot

An initiative in Calcot is looking for volunteers to help run a Youth Club. The club caters for 11-14 year olds and volunteers are required to help organise and supervise activities, run a tuck shop and deal with admissions.

The role would suit volunteers with good communication and team work skills. An ability to organise activities such as art, crafts, dance, music or cooking would be an advantage. The club is on a Thursday evening, with volunteers required between 6:30-8:30pm. (Ref: NY2313)
